FOREWORD

"THE EPITAPH OF FINANCE" touches the nerve centre of our world's economic problems: MONEY. The use of money has until now been viewed as the only possible way to conduct an economy, yet that understanding could not be further from the truth. Interplanetarily speaking, money is an exception and not the rule, depending on what stage of evolution a society of beings has arrived at.

The dynasty of MONEY has completed its debut and will finish its course with the end of this age. It will not be carried over into the new era which is to come. It served the people little good, for its industry has always been controlled by a minority of men who kept carefully hidden from public view, and in running their dynasty of finance never intended to operate in the best interest of the people.

So far this dynasty has remained invincible. Its system has penetrated all facets of human life with utterly devastating effects, yet liberation must happen if the human spirit is to become properly prepared for evacuation into a paradisiacal world.

The writer considers "BEYOND RELIGION: ABUNDANT JOY!" as not off topic to "THE EPITAPH OF FINANCE." The philosophy of economic exploitation of the people with impunity via a debauched financial system has its counterpart in religious exploitation of the people's consciences via churches creating fear of damnation in "hell" from an angry God. For example, those bold enough to refuse paying the IRS contributions into the Federal Reserve Bank must fear the wrath of the System just as much as those are expected to fear endless "fires of hell" from a "wrathful God" should they be found in minor transgressions of religious rules, for the religious exploiters say: "We are sinners and forever shall remain such, and so much as one sin can effectively bar us from ever enjoying the presence of God in heaven and thus consigns us to a state of eternal damnation." Obviously both systems exploit the people, and so we have found it appropriate to place both titles under one cover.

"All the perplexities, confusion and distress in America arise not from defects in the Constitution or confederation, not from want of honour or virtue, so much as from downright ignorance of the nature of coin, credit and circulation."

U.S. President JOHN ADAMS (1735–1826)

THE EPITAPH OF FINANCE

PART ONE

INTRODUCTION

Throughout all of known history of man some form of barter or money system was used to facilitate an orderly exchange of goods and services among the people. These systems of finance, while on one hand having been employed to the accomplishing of much good, yet on the other nonetheless failed the people miserably. The power of finance has in the past, as well as today, been used for the purpose of warfaring and setting up of great empires of economic tyranny, not to mention the concentration of wealth in the hands of a few, and thus the controllers, in utter absence of concern for the people, are leaving a great majority of the people with very little access to basic essentials for the sustenance of life in dignity.

The contradiction in this imbalance is staggering in light of scientifically proven available resources of mother Earth to the achieving of a comfortable lifestyle for all of her 6 billion people as being well within her ability to deliver. WE DO NOT HAVE A SUPPLY PROBLEM! When walking through our shopping malls and supermarkets we see an enormity of products and services available for human consumption to be shared by all. So then, what has gone wrong? Why are we facing starvation for the masses? The answer to this soul-searching question can be condensed into this simple phrase: UNRIGHTEOUS CONTROL OF MONEY.

At this late of an hour in the history of mankind this writer is no longer interested in a mere reversal of such control into that of a "righteous" one. Many good men of the past have tried and failed, i.e. Major C. H. Douglas, Abraham Lincoln, Raoul Couette, Premier Aberhardt, J.F. Kennedy and Benjamin Franklin, and the outcome of their noble efforts we behold with a heart of sadness. We also believe it will be difficult for individual governments to regain control over their currencies after having abandoned such control centuries ago into the cunning hands of a few private citizens. Well have the money grinders succeeded in their attempts of bribery and blackmail of our elected, and sometimes monarchical rulers of the day, and broadened their power base to the point where this oligarchy has now become invincible at their own game of financial control, or so it seems. And, of course, it stands to reason that they always operate without scruple in the protection of their power. So is there then any hope for mankind to ever escape from under the heavy hands of the money changers? Yes. If it were not so, this book would not have been written.

Because a concealed oligarchy is at the controls for the issuing of credit (which means the creation and release of brand new currency) as well as the cost in the form of interest for the extension of such credit, they therefore are never short of money for any scheme of debauchery. Unless the governments of this planet combine, we, the people, will continue to fail in our attempts to wrestle control away from the money lords in order to see it restored to the legislatures of our nation's governments. Isolated efforts by individual governments to gain control over their currency will fail. Why? For in all finality not even their own bureaucracy is controlled by their own governing hand, but rather by merciless money-grinding scoundrels, who have laid a cruel yoke upon the necks of the people! Elected representatives have yet to prove their fortitude in controlling the monster of bureaucracy and law enforcement for the purpose of neutralizing the disproportionate power of international financiers. On the other hand though, nations ruled by a system of autocracy have a definite advantage when it comes to dealing with the destiny of their own currency.

SO FAR WE HAVE FAILED IN GAINING CONTROL OVER OUR CURRENCY BECAUSE WE, THE PEOPLE, CANNOT FOCUS AND UNITE TOWARD THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF SUCH A GOAL! FURTHERMORE, WE DO NOT KNOW HOW MONEY WORKS, AND HAVE BECOME TOO FRAGMENTED IN OUR SOCIETAL STRUCTURAL MAKE-UP. WE ALSO HAVE BECOME TOO PREOCCUPIED WITH THE CHALLENGE OF SURVIVAL IN A WORLD LADEN WITH TIME CONSTRAINTS AND COMPETITION AND HAVE LOST OUR ABILITY TO WORK TOGETHER IN HARMONY ON ANY ISSUE!

The Bible phrase "My people perish for lack of knowledge" reflects also very well the sorry state of affairs society is in, and couple that lack of knowledge with the spinelessness of those, who predominantly as lawyers have exchanged their hats for that of politicians, making laws to further strife in the nation for the expansion of their profession's income base, as everyone fights everyone else in courts of law, then the result becomes a deadly mix of poison for the snuffing out of any nation's soul.

Of course, monopolization of knowledge and understanding (at times also called "secrets") has always been an old hat trick used effectively by those endowed with understanding (know-how) toward the enslavement of an entire populace, where the insights of the "few" were carefully kept away from observation by the rest. Without such monopolization of knowledge no one could rise to the status of pre-eminence above his peers and profit from the toil of the masses. The destruction of equality by the "enlightened few" among those, who are biochemically and ethereally equal before the creation, resulted in a terrible societal imbalance, which will, if it continues to go unchecked, result in humanity's implosion and final annihilation. The economic system of today has made toilers out of the people and divided their strength of unity by pitting men against women, blacks against whites, east against west, conservatives against liberals and Christians against Moslems, so at no point in time will society at large ever be able to deal with their common but rather "enlightened" enemy: THE FEW, WHO PERPETUATE

UNRIGHTEOUS CONTROL OF MONEY!

Having begun to understand the nature of mankind's gravest problem, the men and women, the blacks and the whites, the communists and the capitalists, the Caucasians and the native Indians, the Arabs, and the Jews, must now lay their weapons of contention aside and begin to understand that each is an identical and equal fragment of the creative process of the Universe; that all are equally precious in the sight of the gods and goddesses of creation, and each one is in reality and fact endowed with the potential of creating a complete union of consciousness with every other portion or fragment of mankind, whether they reside here on this earthen plane, or on a star system beyond this galaxy.

We all understand that the molecular structure of our bodies is essentially the same and therefore the requirements for sustaining that structure are also identical. We all need food, access to washrooms, breathe air and insulate our bodies from the cold. That being the case, then why can we not all unite and work in unity toward satisfying the basic essentials of life and leave the rest of toiling undone?

For example, the establishment of cathedrals and manufacturing of weapons of warfare will never accomplish to put food into our hungry bellies, or roofs over our heads, or protect the interests of our brothers and sisters, with whom we are equal before the Creation, and who have the same right of access to such basic essentials of life. What we are doing in such case is this: We are diverting our focus of attention and our energies away from supplying our own and our brother's needs and wasting our energies toward an endeavour which does neither of us any good. As we endeavour to destroy our brother by competing against him, we only destroy ourselves, and as, for example, we expect him to donate toward the construction of a cathedral, we are taking away his life energy which he needs to provide for himself and his family. When we do this to our brother, why then, are we not also doing this to ourselves? Indeed! MY BROTHER IS MYSELF BEFORE THE UNIVERSE, and when for me at last hour of departure comes, I must come back down to a third-dimensional environment, stepping once again behind the veil of forgetfulness (where forces of light and darkness collide), only to learn over again lessons of unity and oneness of a species hitherto unlearned.

There is no escape from our obligation of being our brother's keeper, and for as long as we continue to view him as a rival or competitor to be eliminated, so we ourselves can prevail at his expense, our lessons of life remain unlearned, and thus we have condemned ourselves to the misery of repetitions of low quality incarnations.

The key question remains: Will I as a man be able to unite in peace with my wife in the absence of strife? Will I as a white man be able to finally understand, that my black brother's difference to me is only colour and little else? Will I be finally able to learn, that I, if I were a capitalist, have nothing in difference with my brother, who may be a communist, than that of pure ideology, which has done no "good" than to keep us apart? Once we begin to comprehend our undeniable connection with the completeness of the Universe and strive towards our individual integration into that universal oneness of all mankind, then all weapons of warfare, power and greed will be laid down in favour of an enthusiastic preference for peace, safety, security and harmony for all. Idealistic? We don't think so, for many civilizations throughout the universe function on that basis of oneness and by a universally accepted standard of ethics.

There is an alternative to this life's condition in economic bondage around the power of money! The creation of that alternative begins with the melding of our minds into a oneness of spirit and objective, and then proceeding on towards working in unison for the best interests of each other, outside of restrictions of financial despotism as conducted by an unconcerned minority!

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

Earl of Beaconsfield BENJAMIN DISRAELI
(1804–1881)

CHAPTER ONE: UNDERSTANDING MONEY

THE ORIGIN OF MONEY IDENTIFIED

There is no intrinsic value in money. At best we are looking at a bunch of fancy printed paper where one large tree or inexpensive fibres, cut and ground up, could supply enough for millions of bank notes.

However at one time coins were stamped from certain precious metals, and if one was not convinced the value stamped on its face matched that of its intrinsic value as a precious metal, his owner always had the choice to melt the coin down and use the metal for barter. That system of money became awkward to use, when expanding economies grew and insufficient amounts of precious metal coins were made available to match the demand for them. Of course, the result was invariably an artificially stagnated economy, where too few coins were chasing too many goods, a situation, which created recessions. Sounds familiar? Good. And since no one would even dare to work without the promise of "pay" (coins), the portion of labour required and available in that particular economy remained undone. The people, who had no coins, could not eat, for the farmer would only grow as many chickens as coins were made available to him. The paradox of the day then became "starvation in the midst of abundance." (Not much has changed since those "good old days," right?) The power of the coin makers was awesome indeed.

Centuries ago people with gold would "bank" it with a custodian for safekeeping, and in return for it would be issued a certificate stating exactly the value of it in gold. The holder of this certificate then proceeded to use this piece of paper like we would money, where then the new holder of it, could, if he so chose, at any time redeem this certificate at the custodian for its face value of gold. However that rarely happened, because the exchange of the "certificates" made buying and selling very convenient. So as time went by, the people "forgot" about their right of access to the gold, and the custodian began "issuing" new certificates backed by the gold under his care, which would never be picked up anyway by any holder of certificates, yet all the while the custodian was charging a "fee" (interest) for his services. Eventually the marketplace had many times the amount of gold-backed certificates in circulation than what the custodian had gold in vaults. Since the people never knew how much gold was under his care, they never questioned the ethics of his actions. And thus a banker's "counterfeiting" was born. When people had to return to the custodian certificates of greater value, than what they had been issued (what they had borrowed) because of his "fees" for that service, they got in big trouble, for they had no gold wherewith to pay the "fees" (interest charges) and in the course of time had not only lost the right to all their gold, but also saw their properties confiscated by him. And that is how the idea of "money" was born, where the custodian became the most powerful individual of the entire community.

As time went by and trade grew around the world, the "gold standard" was finally abandoned and declared impractical, since not enough gold was made available to provide a back-up for the increased amounts of currency in circulation. What a windfall profit that day gave to the currency custodians, for in conjunction with that decision they automatically became the legal inheritors of all the gold, which was set aside for backing the people's money! This departure from the gold standard made economically no difference at all, because it did not alter the people's recognition of the value of money. Consequently, hardly anyone got upset about it. And when the face value of all the silver coins in North America became less than its intrinsic value in silver, the worth of thousands of tons of the people's silver fell also into the hands of the currency controllers for the expansion of their own profit base.

By the way, have we ever asked ourselves how it is possible for the entire gold production of the world to be at all times pre-sold, regardless of market requirements for gold in the electronics and other industries? Well, here we have the currency custodians again paying for gold with money created out of thin air, purely based on their legal right to do so. While the creation of credit out of nothing in itself is not wrong, for that mechanism is necessary to jumpstart any economic system and also for the maintaining of balance between the money supply and an economy's productive capacity, we feel however it is wrong to misuse it for the broadening of one's power base and acquisition of personal wealth, by claiming ownership to properties and commodities paid for by money created out of nothing. Counterfeiters are mercilessly punished at the instigation of the money lords, yet these lords' practice of credit creation is nothing less than counterfeiting, the creation of funds out of thin air.

As mentioned before, the money monopolists had decades earlier on awarded themselves with the people's gold by releasing the currency from its gold standard. They also set interest rates and use the IRS for the purpose of collecting tribute to fill the coffers of the Federal Reserve with our hard-earned cash, money, they really don't need, as they can create it by the "stroke of a pen." (And here we thought our taxes were to support the Federal Government! Just look who owns and controls the Federal Reserve and who cancels your cheques of taxes paid! Certainly not the Government of the United States!)

So there you have the location, or better, institution of where our money originates: at the highest level of the banking system, the institutions, which have been awarded the nation's greatest and most sacred trust ever: THAT OF THE CREATION OF THE CREDIT OF THE NATION OUT OF NOTHING!

Great myths exist around the issue of where and how money originates or makes its first appearance. Here our banks have made absolutely no effort in dispelling those myths. One of them is the lie that banks can only lend the depositors' money. Yet the truth of the matter is that at no time ever do they do such a thing, nor are they by law even allowed to do that. In 1939 the Governor of the Bank of Canada, Mr. Graham Towers, was called before the Banking and Commerce Committee of Parliament and among many other questions was asked, whether banks lend their depositor's money. Mr. Towers categorically stated:

Banks cannot, of course, loan the money of their depositors... What depositors do with these savings is quite beyond the control of the banks (p. 445). They do not lend their deposits, of course! (p. 398).

So then, where according to Mr. Towers do the banks get the monies from, which they so liberally use to either finance their extravagant buildings or lend governments, corporations, businesses and individuals into unrepayable debt situations with?

Questioner: Is there no question about it, that the banks do create that medium of exchange (out of nothing)?

Mr. Towers: That is right. That is what they are there for... That is banking business, just in the same way that a steel plant makes steel (p. 287). The manufacturing process consists of making a pen-and-ink or typewritten entry on a card or in a book. That is all! (p. 238).

One of the questioners then proceeded to ask, whether anything, which was physically possible for mankind to achieve, could also be made available financially.

Mr. Towers: Certainly!

Sadly to say however, our spineless elected politicians squandered this most sacred trust, which the people's constitutions endowed them with, and gave it away into the hands of a group of shrewd and ruthless minority, in return for a very hollow promise: the promise, that "credit will be extended in the best interests of the nation." Obviously that part of the bargain was never taken seriously by the currency controllers. The many wars, revolutions and strife they financed are evidence of that. Remember Jacob Schiff, a New York banker, who bankrolled the atrocities of the Russian revolution resulting in economic enslavement under Communist rule for many nations?

Thomas A. Edison (1847–1931) caught a glimpse of the power of credit creation, when he advocated that "he, who has power to issue the bond, also has power to issue the dollar, which buys the bond." He stated:

"The only dynamite that works in this country is the dynamite of a sound idea. I think we are getting a sound idea on the money question. The people have an instinct, which tells them that something is wrong and that the wrong somehow centres in money.

Don't allow them to confuse you with the cry of 'paper money.' The danger of paper money is precisely the danger of gold – if you get too much, it is no good. There is just one rule for money and that is to have enough to carry all the legitimate trade that is waiting to move. Too little and too much are both bad. But enough to move trade, enough to prevent stagnation on the one hand, not enough to permit speculation on the other hand, is the proper ratio.

If our nation can issue a Dollar bond, it can issue a dollar bill. The element that makes the bond good, makes the bill good also. The difference between the bond and the bill is that the bond lets money brokers collect the amount of the bond and an additional 20 percent interest, whereas the currency pays nobody, but those who contribute directly in some useful way.

It is absurd to say that our country can issue $30,000,000 in bonds and not $30,000,000 in currency. Both are promises to pay, but one promise fattens the usurer and the other helps the people.

It is the people who constitute the basis of government credit. Why then cannot the people have benefit of their own gilt edge credit by receiving non-interest-bearing currency, instead of the bankers receiving the benefit of the people's credit in interest-bearing bonds? If the United States Government will adopt this policy of increasing its national wealth without contributing to the interest collector – for the whole national debt is made up on interest charges – then you will see an era of progress and prosperity in this country such as could never have come otherwise."

Bless your heart, Mr. Edison! Your voice should have been heard and heeded the day you spoke those words! But alas, now our calendar year is 1996 AD, and there is no reason to believe, that your words of sound advice will fall upon the ears of more intelligent listeners today than they did in your days of 100 years ago. Now we find ourselves too close to the manifestation of a great global clean-up of more than just financial messes to make us believe, we can persuade our bankers to let go of their unrighteous control over our national currencies!

Now we must move on and tell the people, that in the new era which is to come, of which the bankers of the past as well as those of today will have no part to play in, in that era there will be no money issued or currency in circulation to charge interest on. They will not be given opportunity to hijack the people's freedom ever again, for the societies of the future will become "enlightened" and "learned" as the "illuminated" ones once were before their "light" was turned into that of darkness.

The good-will of the citizens of tomorrow will do away with the outmoded form of doing business by means of credit creation and financial transactions, but rather prefer to contribute onto the benefit of all everything that is necessary for a wholesome life in freedom and unity of spirit with all beings – whether they be of earth or of the cosmos. They will live in luxury, leisure and joy far beyond that of what the money lords have ever been able to do, as they indulged in luxury from the toil of the people, and all the while busied themselves doing nothing good but beating the nations down into dust at their feet!

Their arrogance is not in the least less than that of their forefather, Mayer Amsel Rothschild, who boldly spoke, saying: "Permit me to issue and control the money of a nation, and I care not who makes its laws!" Truly, the blood of all good men, which they freely spilled in their dastardly efforts to retain and expand that power, will be required at their hands before the heavenly council, and their self-inflicted punishment will be no less than that of the pulverization of their consciousness!

Let's not think for a moment they are above the rules of universal justice and will be exempted from participation in the misery of billions, whose lives they have made a living hell with their draconian money power!

Have we elected them to do so by majority vote? Have we welcomed their cruel games upon us and cheered them on in their murderous conspiracies, or have we at times risked our lives to rather stop them in their madness!? And how have they rewarded us for our noble efforts? Just as they have not respected our right to life and happiness, so have they not respected that of their own!! Indeed, only fools sell their souls in return for the power of money!!

We, the people, have some advice for them in their wretchedness: let them relax the stranglehold on the nations and perhaps they may redeem back into their favour commendation gained from the days they volunteered to do the devil's work!

We expect them to issue into circulation sufficient funds – interest-free – for the people to have a chance of survival against all other odds of life, and perhaps heaven will meet down upon them a more tolerable lot at the day they are weighed in the scales of justice!!

*"I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies.
Already they have raised up a monied aristocracy that has set the Government at defiance.
The issuing power should be taken from the banks and be restored to the people to whom it properly belongs."*

U.S. President THOMAS JEFFERSON
(1743–1826)

POLITICIANS ARE BETRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TRUST

For many years after WWII up until the Trudeau Era a maximum mortgage interest ceiling rate of 6% in Canada's law system prevented the operating lending institutions from charging beyond that limit for that nation's residential housing needs. Under this restrictive law Canada had seen after the war many housing booms and usually a single family house was not out of reach for anyone able and willing to work. Prime Minister Trudeau lifted that ceiling under the pretense that a removal of this restriction would introduce competition among the mortgage companies. And here not only did he remove that ceiling, he also permitted mortgage lenders to sell term contracts to the home-buying public, which meant the introduction of a "floating" mortgage rate, where the balance of the mortgage after one or five years, depending what terms were agreed to in the contract, was adjusted to the prevailing rate of interest at the time. Under those contracts monthly payments doubled and tripled for many when the outstanding balance came up for review. At that point many home owners lost their homes, for their incomes had not kept pace with the skyrocketing mortgage payments they were then compelled to make. It must be kept in mind here that a linear increase in the rate of interest creates an exponential increase in mortgage payments!

And indeed, shortly after the mortgage ceiling rate had been removed off the law books, the rate scale for residential housing skyrocketed to beyond 18 percent, and the constancy of no negotiated interest charge was guaranteed anymore to the end of the term. People were forced out of their homes in droves and back into rental apartments. The great Canadian dream of the 20th century was shattered when Trudeau gave credit controllers the liberty to raise mortgage rates at will!

Ironically, only Social Creditors in Ottawa favoured the reinstatement of the 6% interest ceiling law. The people's loss of property to the hidden oligarchy was of no concern to politicians who endeavoured to remain in the good books of the few credit controllers. "The people be damned" became Ottawa's prevailing philosophical attitude toward Canadians for 16 years of Trudeau's rule.

Let us now tell the people, who are groaning under the burden of their unrighteous political leaders, that the vast majority of their elected representatives are lawyers by profession. Trudeau was no exception here. For instance, of all the presidents of the United States, 27 were graduates from law schools. Only 14 represented educational backgrounds other than that of law. The same imbalance exists in Canadian politics.

Lawyers are consistently propelling themselves into cushy conflict-of-interest situations by clamouring to get hold of the law making machines of the nations. Can we then not logically conclude, that a lawyer become politician will naturally not represent the interests of the people, but rather go about the business of creating an ever increasing mountain of restrictive and contentious rules and regulations, which do nothing but cast the general public into an ever increasing number of contenders before the courts of law? And once they arrive there, the commoners can only represent their case with the help of a high priced lawyer. Surely, the lawyer's class monopolization of the law-making machine plus administration of law is partly responsible for the political-economic messes nations find themselves in.

In the United States the lawyer's class' threat to confederation did not go by unnoticed by the people. For that reason a 13th amendment to the Constitution was formulated and ratified by the majority of State legislatures, barring lawyers from participation in the law-making process as politicians. The advent of the Civil War disrupted the process of further ratifications, and when finally the War had ended, and the confusion of the days were over, the newly printed edition of the Constitution of the United States had that particular 13th amendment omitted. So the treachery of lawyers had again prevailed in preventing the American people from ridding themselves of a profession in perpetual conflict-of-interest positions when it comes to the running of their country.

Although we do not wish to be discriminative against anyone with sincere desires of contributing to the betterment of society at large, however it is definitely not unfair to expect a profession in control of the judicial process to stay out of the legislative arena of law-making. Isn't that what "division of power" is all about?

During the tumultuous years of the Civil War (1861-1865) here in the United States, Germany had Bismarck for a chancellor. At that time an article was published in the London Times of England. Efforts were made in America to throw off the banker's yoke and restore currency control back to Congress, where it constitutionally belongs. The editorial writer must have been a close friend to the banksters elite and is recorded to have written the following statement:

"If that mischievous financial policy (of the United States), which had its origin in the North American Republic, should become indurated down to a fixture (become established), then that Government will furnish its own money without cost. It will pay off debts, and without a debt it will have all the money necessary to carry on its commerce. It will become prosperous beyond precedent in the history of the civilized governments of the world. The brains and the wealth of all countries will go to North America. That government must be destroyed, or it will destroy every monarchy on the globe!"

We do believe it to be proper to expect for statesmen to function in the best interest of the people and not succumb to blackmail by special interest groups. Mr. Roosevelt, after once yielding to pressure from financial circles, is quoted to have replied: "It is my business to yield to pressure!" Was this an admission of spinelessness or a reflection of what all politicians really are about: yielding to blackmailers and throwing the people's interests into the wind? One man was sorry for having done so. His name was Salmon P. Chase. He said:

"(In causing my agency to promote) the passage of the National Bank Act, (I) made the greatest financial mistake of my life. It has built up a monopoly, which affects every interest in the country. It should be repealed; but before that can be accomplished, the people will be arrayed on one side and the banks on the other in a contest such as we have never seen before in this country."

THE ORIGIN OF MONEY – CONCLUSION

In conclusion of this investigation we then make this statement unequivocally: Firstly, the purpose of money is to provide the link between production and consumption, where the producers of wealth have an inherent and undeniable right of access to their own production as consumers.

Secondly, at no point is money pumped into circulation other than as an interest bearing debt to individuals, businesses, corporations, towns, cities, provinces, hospitals, or national governments, except when banks or their holdings companies purchase gold directly from gold mining companies. The interest therefore guarantees that at no point in time can any of these debts successfully be repaid, unless some other institution or individual becomes a casualty along the way. "Brilliant!" – the international banker says behind closed doors, as he discusses with his peers to what degree the people should be choked economically without serious damage to their own interests of power and control.

We are now at a point, where it is a great blessing (economically speaking), when governments continue to balloon their own debts far beyond what they collect in taxes, lest our money in circulation be rapidly depleted, as people struggle to repay their debts, with the ultimate result of no money left to consume their production. Spendthrift governments spend money into circulation to keep the wheels of the economies going. The day they stop doing exactly that will be the day when we will cry the blues of depression. The only negative side effect of a spendthrift government in today's environment is the nastiness of ever increasing confiscatory taxation against the incomes of the people.

The currency custodians do not confine themselves to merely purchase the world's production of gold, but also use their credit creation authority to deficit finance all debt-ridden governments, corporations, businesses and individuals all over this world. Quite a powerful monopoly, would you not say? Whenever they extend a credit into anyone's bank account, this particular amount then arrives as an INTEREST BEARING DEBT for the recipient of that "credit." The wickedness about this particular form of doing business lies in the fact that ONLY THE PRINCIPLE IS CREATED INTO CIRCULATION, and at no point in time are steps taken to also infuse the interest portion of debt into circulation, in order to assure all debtors the ability to repay their acquired debts without depleting the money in circulation and assure that debtors are not losing their property at pay-up time.

Well, fact is, the amount of interest charged on a debt is never created at any point in time, for currency custodians prefer to confiscate your property the moment default occurs. You see, as money circulates and goes from hand to hand IT NEVER MULTIPLIES. If one thousand dollars are borrowed into circulation at a rate of 10 percent, only 1000 Dollars can be returned at any given point in time. The extra 100 Dollars required at the end of the first year can only come from the principal of some other borrower, who is in the same predicament of returning more than he was given in the first place. And should one debtor succeed in repaying his or her loan in full including all interest charges, it makes it that much harder for the rest to do the same. Why? BECAUSE THE FIRST DEBTOR'S INTEREST CHARGES WERE TAKEN FROM THE PRINCIPAL OF ANOTHER SORRY DEBTOR!

At this point the currency custodian requires of the people that which only he himself can deliver: THE CREATION OF CREDIT OUT OF NOTHING. Since that power does not lie within the borrower's ability to deliver (and the custodian knows that very well), the borrower allows his property to be held by the currency custodian as COLLATERAL. Since every borrower enters into the same unfair contractual agreement, debt casualties must be created in order to guarantee currency in circulation. As people repay their debts, currency is bled out of circulation, unless an ever increasing number of borrowers guarantee other debtors to permit them to, both, pay the principal, plus the interest portion of their own debts. Under this system we not only require an ever increasing number of debtors, but also must forever rob Peter to pay Paul and none of us can be living our lives in a friendly atmosphere anymore.

WHO IS THE MAGNIFICENT CREDITOR?

The governments of all "rich" nations are in debt. In Canada each family carries over $70,000 Dollars of public debt via the federal government alone. Double that figure to include the public debts provincial governments have accumulated, and we are looking at an astronomical figure of one hundred and forty thousand dollars of government debt per family. None of the western as well as east block countries are debt free. Almost all corporations and businesses are in debt, and so is a large percentage of the adult population. At this point consider the nation as a unit and let us freely add up all current debt loads of society and divide this number by the number of adult working people, and in this writers estimation the per family total accumulated debt load hovers around the $200,000 Dollar mark, all of which is subject to current interest charges. If that rate of interest is a "modest" 10 %, then the family must come up with $20,301 Dollars annually for 30 years before the debt bill to the banker is paid. With an average family income of less than $30,000 Dollars such an up-front cost is unaffordable in light of current cost-of-living expenses and a taxation level approaching an average of 40% of middle class income.

Now, if society at large is in nothing but financial "red ink," then who in the world had the ability to come up with all that cash to finance the entire human race into debt? And even if we were to identify that oligarchy by name and number, what magnificent contribution to humanity have they made to acquire wealth to where the entire human family lies prostrate at their feet? Has such wealth and power not been stolen from the people by means of a money trick – THE MISUSE OF POWER OF CREDIT CREATION?

It is unreasonable to assume, that acquisition of such control over the nations has been achieved by ethical means. The international bankers have constructed a system which forever requires more and more people to assume new debts in order to keep the world economies from collapsing. The day when no more people can be found for successful manipulation into new debt acquisition will be the day when their system will either collapse, or they will be compelled to begin to "forgive" debts in order to maintain control. Of course, the "forgiving" of debt is a dicey issue with them, for such would set a precedent; however they deem themselves not to be in the business of compassionate service nor of the extension of mercy to anyone.

Have we ever asked ourselves why only individuals, businesses, corporations, and governments are solicited and/or inclined toward providing of disaster relief donations in events of natural disasters such as earthquakes, hurricanes and tornadoes, yet never do banks participate to ease the burden of people in distress? This writer has yet to learn of one example, where a bank has come forward and participated in financial disaster relief for the people by putting their efficient power of credit creation to good use for the benefit of the people in distress! No, the currency custodians are not in the business of extending compassion. The murders of Abraham Lincoln, J.F. Kennedy and Alberta's Premier Aberhardt are a grim reminder of that reality!

In order to ultimately control the entirety of all the world's natural resources, the banks have begun to bargain with debt ridden governments. In the case of Brazil they dealt for control over her most precious natural resource, the Amazon forest, in return for unpaid debts to their privately owned credit institutions. This example will definitely serve as a pattern to be followed by other countries. When Canada's politicians deem the national debt as too much of a burden upon the nation, they will then in the end pledge away that country's natural resources in return for the banker to take a pen to cross out her national debt and allow the nation a fresh start into more debt misery!

Today's money system is a legacy of victims and victimizers. We deem it futile to call upon the victims to unite in a revolt against their financial slave masters (victimizers). The bankers are too powerful to become dislodged by a popular revolt. It cannot be done from the bottom up, but rather such must come from the top down. A successful overturning of the money changer's tables can only be accomplished by a leader understanding the nature of the problem plus being imbued with determination and full empowerment to eradicate mankind's greatest cancer by a complete and global removal of the entire financial system. Into that vacuum must then become inserted the only logical alternative: the paradisiacal order of economics as it currently prevails on many other planets.

*"A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit.
Our system of credit is concentrated.
The growth of the nation and all our activities are in the hands of a few men.
We have come to be one of the worst ruled,
one of the most completely controlled and dominated governments in the world – no longer a Government of free opinion, no longer a Government by conviction and vote of the majority, but a Government by the opinion and duress of small groups of dominant men."*

U.S. President WOODROW WILSON
(1856–1924)

These words were spoken by the President just before he died. He admitted to friends, that he had been "deceived" and that he had betrayed his country. In that confession he referred to the FEDERAL RESERVE ACT, which was passed into law during his presidency.

DEBT REPAYMENT – A MATHEMATICAL IMPOSSIBILITY

Under the present financial system the charging of interest on borrowed money can be likened to a barrel of water, which is to be kept full at all times (a contractual obligation by banks with governments in order to avoid recessions due to a shortage of cash in the land), the fullness of the barrel representing a healthy economy with adequate amounts of money in circulation to meet everyone's needs. This barrel (economy) has a supply line at the top (infusion of brand new currency or capital through public debt acquisition) and a drain line at the bottom (repayment of debts with interest charges, representing a loss of funds to the economy, for all repayments made to banks equate a destruction or total disappearance of those amounts from circulation).

If the currency controllers were conscientious men seeking the best interests of people of the nation, they would always assure the availability of correct amounts of money available for the supply of everyone's basic needs. And here an oversupply of funds would mean a dislodging of economic balance to create price gouging and profiteering, and an undersupply of funds would generate recessions, unemployment, depression and starvation in the midst of an abundance of material availability (also called "stagflation." This word is made up of "stagnation," because not enough money goes around to meet the people's needs, and "inflation," because production costs cannot be curtailed when whose costs invariably include rising taxes and escalating interest charges on corporate loans.).

Now, a closed economy with a constant number of workers or business men, say 100,000 in number, would in this case have 100,000 individuals available to go into debt against the money lenders in order to create sufficient funds in circulation to assure a healthily balanced economy for a while. The supply line has been opened for the barrel to be filled. Everyone works, makes money and spends it back into circulation to supply his or her basic needs. Debts are being repaid successfully, because not all have gone into debt at the same time. For ten years this closed economy has worked well and created much prosperity, for the money lenders noticed, that the amounts of debts and interest paid on loans were equal to the amounts of capital infused through new debt acquisition.

At last, after the lapse of 10 years there were no more people left to go into debt to the money lenders, for everyone who had gone into debt to the credit creator was found in desperate attempts to snatch up from money in circulation whatever he could to firstly meet his financial obligation to the lender lest his property be confiscated. As time went by money became a commodity in short supply, as people scrambled to pay the banker not only what in funds they owed dollar for dollar, but also the "interest" on their debts. Now, interest could not be paid in the form of labour, or food, or houses to the banker, rather the banker demanded money as the only legitimate form of payment, something the people should have known they could not do, since the banker never saw it needful to introduce the interest in the form of currency along with the capital.

The barrel of the economy became drained of its cash, as no more new capital could be infused, as there were no more people left to go into debt to provide the guarantee for continued supply of capital. Of course, eventually our sample community of 100,000 potential debtors collapsed. They all had neglected to check the banker's mathematics, and therefore failed to discover his trick to cheat them out of life and limb. And so in the end it was the currency creator, who became the legal owner of the assets of the people and the people starved for want of food.

INTEREST ON ANY DEBT CAN NEVER BE PAID BY THE PUBLIC, BECAUSE THE CREDIT CREATORS NEVER CREATE THAT COST FACTOR TO THE ACQUISITION OF A DEBT INTO CIRCULATION!!

Wake up, people of this once mighty nation! Wake up, people of the world! Your properties are legally falling into the hands of the money creators, because you are not the one who creates money to pay them the interest on your debts!! Debt repayment is a mathematical impossibility!! The sooner you will discover this most desperately guarded secret of the international financiers, the greater your chance will be to finally throw their yoke off your necks and stop the plunder of your nation by stripping them of the power of their iniquity: usury!!

In our little example the "drain" at the bottom of the barrel was greater than the amount of water piped in at the top. When finally the barrel became empty, the economy collapsed and the banker was the only one left to claim for himself the greatest profit ever in the form of harvesting the people's assets upon their financial demise. In conclusion of this topic, hear what the credit manager of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Mr. Robert H. Hemphill, had to say:

"If all bank loans were paid, no one would have a bank deposit, and there would not be a dollar of currency or coin in circulation. This is a staggering thought. We are completely dependent on the commercial banks. Someone has to borrow every dollar we have in circulation, cash or credit. If the banks create ample synthetic money, we are prosperous; if not, we starve. We are absolutely without a permanent monetary system. When one gets a complete grasp upon the picture, the tragic absurdity of our hopeless position is almost incredible – but there it is. It (the banking system) is the most important subject intelligent persons can investigate and reflect upon. It is so important that our present civilization may collapse, unless it is widely understood and the defects remedied very soon!"

*"Little thieves are put in the stocks, great thieves go flaunting in gold and silk...
Therefore is there on this Earth no greater enemy of man than a gripemoney, and usurer, for he wants to (be) God over all men....
But the usurer and money-glutton, such a one would have the whole world perish of hunger and thirst, misery and want,
so far as in him lies,
so that he may have all to himself,
and everyone may receive from him as from a god, and be his serf forever!"*

Dr. MARTIN LUTHER

DIVIDE AND CONQUER – AN ANCIENT ELITIST STRATEGY!

"United we stand – divided we fall!" has ever been at the foundation of understanding wherefrom the credit controllers would devise their strategies against the interests of the people. The sectionalizing of the global public into racial, political, religious or otherwise identity groups and the instilling upon them the illusion, that white is better than black or Anglo-Saxon being better than German, or Christian is better than Muslim, etc., laid the foundation for the process of conquering all under the tyranny of finance.

The moment these among themselves divided and oftentimes hostile towards each other factions began to accept the fallacy that one can further divide the people between "producers" and "consumers," was the time when only money conveniently became that sole connecting link between the two.

The error in viewing humanity as producers and consumers lies in the fact that each member of the human race is both, a producer (contributor) as well as a consumer. Not one individual would by nature merely desire to be one without the other, for by nature every producer is also a consumer and vice versa. Yet trying to be a producer only means dying a physical death and those who wish to be consumers only die spiritually onto themselves and their dignity. The Universe can and will not tolerate neither slave masters nor parasites without immense repercussion upon those, who desire to become such. Every action and every attitude is being accompanied by either a price to pay or a reward to inherit as an intrinsic consequence.

Of course society at large is sufficiently compassionate to look after its handicapped members and not withhold from them the essentials of life – speaking of those, who have no ability to produce.

If we are as much producers than we are consumers, then who in the world can rightfully deny us access to our own production? If we are fully capable to look after our own needs as consumers, then who has the right to deny us efforts to meet those needs? Only the currency controllers of today do exactly that. They have made money the connecting link between our production and our consumption. By effectively removing that link (withdrawing money out of circulation by means of interest charges and taxation) we virtually lose our right to bake our own bread and feed our hungry stomachs. Remember the saying "He, who does not work, let him also not eat!"? What they really meant to say was "He, who does not work for money, let him also not eat!" for in today's world one cannot eat, unless one has money. How dangerously unfair!

Collectively speaking I and 270 Million Americans are the same, where everyone is both, producer as well as consumer. Hence a denial of access of that particular unified group to their own production is equally illogical. By dividing humanity into the two groups of producers and consumers, the money controllers have through the misuse of finance become the overlords of our economic destiny.

An economy supplied with sufficient amounts of currency will find people with much emotional and physical health. Crime and violence against each other will be very low, for there will be no reason to steal, as each is being given ample opportunity to contribute and look after his/her own needs. Yet remove that currency from circulation for whatever reason, and that same harmoniously working society will disintegrate into crime and anarchy, and its fall will not be one in consequence of a deficiency of food and material goods either.

The dangers to a society being divided against itself through a connecting link between its production and consumption are awesome, and so is the power over the people by those, who control that link. And only in them and none else must we identify the overlords and rulers of this world, and cease to believe that men elected into public office are incarnates of evil! The latter function as much under the iron fist control of the currency controllers as do the rest of us, who vote politicians into office!

Having said so does not mean that politicians do not frequently become serfs to the established order of debauchery by currency controllers as they, the financial overlords, easily strike out at politicians' weakest character trait: *greed - through bribes and payouts into the latter's bank accounts, which invariably occurs at the expense of legitimate concerns and the interest of the people.

*The money power preys upon the nation in times of peace, and conspires against it in times of adversity.
It is more despotic than a monarchy,
more insolent than autocracy,
more selfish than a bureaucracy.
It denounces as public enemies all who question its methods or throw light upon its crimes."*
U.S. President ABRAHAM LINCOLN
(1809–1865)

CHAPTER TWO: PRODUCTION AND CONSUMPTION ETHICS

Here the reader may counter by asking "How on Earth can one rightfully attach ethical attributes of 'good' or 'bad' and 'right' and 'wrong' to production and consumption, since both are essential to the sustenance of life?" Well, we would indeed not have to subject production and consumption to labels of morality, if today money were not the sole connecting link between the two. We have a case here of special interests emerging on the horizon of our duality, which, without the element of money, could not make their appearance. The special interests we are talking about are shareholders of big business and corporations on one hand and environmentalists on the other.

THE INVESTOR'S VIEWPOINT

The shareholders and owners of industry say: "We need maximum production to guarantee for ourselves maximum profits!", and then they proceed to set up industries that are feeding upon themselves in an atrociously wasteful manner in order to keep "dividends" on "investments" flowing in. Factories are being built to manufacture weapons of war for destructive purposes, because (they say) unless we "consume" (destroy) what we build, we cannot profit, and unless we have waste (excessive consumption) we cannot maximize the return on our "investment".

Consequently under this program the natural resources of this planet are plundered in a big way to keep as many people "employed" for maximum production. Production is being made an end in itself, for the rules in this particular game dictate no requirement for anybody to benefit from its consumption process. If the consumption of a hand grenade constitutes its split second explosion and in its course is ripping off a soldier's arm, then by the rules of industrialists and their investors that is acceptable, because that particular type of consumption has generated "profit" not only directly at the manufacturing level of the grenade, but it also has created another opportunity for more profit at the point of its "consumption" (explosion) when it ripped off the soldier's arm where it necessitated doctor's care and hospital facilities, the latter creating another opportunity for more profits by industries creating and running hospitals, medical centres, and medical supplies.

Obviously the money link between production and consumption allows for no consideration of what is "ethical" or "proper" in the process, but rather of what makes profit and what does not. Wanton destruction of property, whether induced by man through warfaring among nations or natural catastrophes, all is looked upon as opportunity for profit by the owners of our industries, since all destruction is ultimately nothing but consumption with a promise of more production for profit.

Is it any wonder then, that our garbage dumps are overflowing and industrial waste is killing this planet? Not at all. The three percent of humanity's population owning and controlling 97% of humanity's property are not at all concerned about ecological implications on mother Earth stemming from plunder for profit. In an environment where production for profit is made an end in itself without regard to consumption with ethics, the destruction of all life off the face of this planet is a natural consequence.

THE ENVIRONMENTALIST'S DILEMMA

And this is where the environmentalists come in! Not, that the investor and owner of industry is "bad" and the environmentalist is "good", but we merely happen to find both parties' interests at extreme ends of our economy spectrum.

The environmentalist means well in his endeavours. Our world would truly be a better place if we had no atomic explosions, no nuclear power plants, alternate energy forms and no toxic pollution problems. However, his endeavours toward "preservation of our ecological balance" would, if globally enforced, create an enormous economic imbalance, the negative effects of which not even he himself would be able to escape, as long as he remains compelled to survive under existing rules of economics, i.e. the rules of income and expenses in terms of dollars and cents. And how would he create such an economic imbalance in which he would find himself victimized? The dramatic shutdown of every facet of industry and commerce producing pollution and waste would effectively eliminate the employment opportunities of 70% of our work force, resulting in an instant economic collapse and anarchy, for there does not as yet exist an alternative to our financial ways of doing business, which still states: "He who will not work for money shall also not eat!"

But who of the two is closer to the truth? We believe the environmentalist! Only that he has yet to learn that an emotionally healthy society can indeed look after its own consumption needs without money as an exchange medium!

CHAPTER THREE: AUTOMATION AND ROBOTICS – A BLESSING OR A CURSE?

THE "DOWNSIZING" AFTERMATH

Ah, to the delight of the shareholders the Dow Jones at the New York Stock Exchange early this year (1996) rose to not only break the 5000 point "barrier," but continued its climb to beyond the 5,800 mark. And why did stocks in value rise? Not because people had more disposable income or a greater confidence of a bright economic future, no, the reason for the rise was quoted to be the announcement of massive corporate layoffs, called "downsizing." What a strange contradiction in its own right! Jubilation and excitement at the stock exchanges of this continent in light of impending calamity for many of its people!

And who, may we ask, is ultimately keeping the "fat cats" at the top going if not the purchasing power of the people? Take that away from them and even the limited intelligence of stockholders would have to conclude that eventually their corporations will come crashing down! How does one expect to preside over a healthy corporation while at the same time advocating the erasure of the middle class income base of the people? Is it not ultimately the spending power of the "working class" which keeps the corporations healthy? Schizophrenia at its best, we think!

THE AUTOMATION DILEMMA DISCUSSED

Speaking about corporations, we observe that other than just the removal of salaries off of their payrolls, we also hear them implement the technological wonders of automation and robotics for greater profits and production. And here we have another contradiction displaying the intelligence level of investors for all the world to see:

As long as robots replace assembly line workers and no effort is being made to permit the displaced worker to profit from his replacement in the form of an income dividend from the robot's productive capacity, THEN THAT WORKER WILL NEVER HAVE MONEY TO PURCHASE ANY OF THE ROBOTS' PRODUCTION!

Then why have robotics, if no consumption can be guaranteed? The displaced worker, who needs to consume to survive, has no purchasing power, and robots on the other hand, who are not consumers by nature, have no need to purchase anything! PEOPLE, NOT ROBOTS, CONSUME! The robot-generated production is invariably meant for consumption by the people, is it not? The sooner investors begin to understand that their corporations are there to serve the people's needs, rather than being production centres for financial profits, the quicker will they come to their senses and cease to support with their cash corporations, which are prepared to sacrifice the people for profit, something they ultimately cannot be assured of in the long run!

In the end, the real things of value will not be the size of our bank accounts or gold in our vaults, but the day will come, when all of humanity will be placed under only one common denominator for true wealth, and the crucial question will then be: do I have food to eat, clothes to wear, a roof for shelter and transportation for mobility? One day the wealthy and powerful abusers of humanity will see their egos reduced to where they must compete with the common man for survival in the cruelty of a world, which they themselves have created! And here we are speaking of karmic justice requiring them to "serve time" in subsequent incarnations under draconian conditions of their own making.

SOME FOOD FOR THOUGHT!

My elitist friends: do not trust in your underground bunkers and stockpiles of years of food for survival, for the quakes will break them up and the ocean waters will flood them all. Do not trust in your man-made space station of 1999, for once you are up there circling the earth; you have no infrastructure left on earth to come back to after the great house cleaning, so called. The common man's advantage in the ultimate survival contest will likely be his child-like faith in his cosmic brotherhood's compassion to lift him off this planet before the grounds break up and oceanic tidal waves sweep the continents, and we deem that to be a faith your elitist reliance on bunkers cannot deliver! Food, not gold bricks, is needed for a hungry stomach, and so is a healthy dose of friendship with operators of extraterrestrial craft required when molten lava from below collide with oceanic tidal waves from above!

CONCLUSION

Is automation a blessing or a curse? It is a blessing indeed when disconnected from the corrupted system of finance and corporate greed. The entire brainpower of nations could be mobilized to automate the production of basic as well as luxury commodities, if in return for that service free access to the entire production would be made available for the benefit of all without conditions – free for the taking within reasonable limits. Enormous amounts of leisure time for all would be freed up for people to go about the pursuit of their hearts' desires, and no one's necessity to feed and clothe himself could be held ransom any longer for work with pay!

The threat of automation is real only under conditions of finance, where the displaced individual is barred from access to production through non-participation in profit potential of automated processes. If a way could be found, where robotics could financially benefit the displaced worker, then indeed the curse of automation would be lifted!

CHAPTER FOUR:

FOUNDATION FOR SOCIETAL HEALING

The beginning of humanity on this earth plane was not a biochemical embryo washed upon the ocean shore, supposedly causing a string of evolutionary cycles of life creation. Such theory is nothing less than a desperate attempt of a blinded mind to explain what he had hitherto never considered: that all life forms on Earth have an extraterrestrial origin, that Earth was meant to be nothing less than an intergalactic information exchange centre, and that all complex life forms were transported here from other star and planetary systems for the purpose of enjoyment of a new home and of the life experience.

And who dropped our forefathers off and by means of what technology, seeing that we at this time have barely "scratched the surface" of space travel? Our brothers and sisters from other planetary systems in this and other galaxies! Incarnation lies at the foundation of life's joy and spiritual growth, and it were incarnates of higher levels of evolvment that brought us and our forefathers here to prove ourselves and be given the opportunity for growth through a series of our own incarnational experiences upon this earthen plane!

And why are we so unaware of our celestial brothers and sisters? Because we have become their worst enemy! Our airspace is no longer safe for them to fly in, nor is there safety on our ground for them to walk on. Our elite-controlled bureaucracy has long begun to use our present levels of technology to ensnare and trap their craft for capture in order to steal from them their technology, so that man's ruling class may some day invade space and declare universal war against all other peaceful societies elsewhere in the Universe.

Do they trust us in light of potential physical demise in case of capture? Of course not! Should we wonder why we feel alone and forsaken? Not at all, for it has been our hostile attitude towards our true friends and relatives of the cosmos that caused them to withdraw knowledge of their existence from our conscious awareness span. Trust is never freely given, it must be earned! And here we earthlings are no exception.

Have we conducted ourselves trustworthy since platitudes of friendship were hurled into space via PIONEER 10 in the late 50s, in hopes such probe should be discovered by intergalactic people? Never! Friendly visitors from outer space we betrayed and captured, as they responded to the invitation, and after using their delicate bodies for experimental research, we murdered them!

Have they in return for mankind's ultimate crimes against their dignity used their awesome technological superiority to wipe us out? No. Why not? BECAUSE THEY RECOGNIZE US AS THEIR MISGUIDED RELATIVES, WHO MUST EARN BACK A BROKEN TRUST – EVEN AT THE PERIL OF MAN HAVING TO UNDERGO THE AGONY OF MANY THOUSAND SUCCESSIVE INCARNATIONS UNTIL AT LAST THE LESSON OF UNIVERSAL ONENESS IS LEARNED!

Have we ever asked ourselves what made them successful in not only mastering the organization of their own society, but also in conquering the expanse of space? No? The key to their success lies in the absence of finance governing their production and consumption!! They have not permitted financial overlords invading their territories!! They have not permitted individuals seeking power over them to upset their liberty of conquering the universe the peaceful way! They have been vigilant and were not "sleeping at the wheel" of their vehicle to economic health!

No society can progress without economic safety. And progression here does not only consist of economics per se, but includes spiritual progression in the form of recognition of universal laws of conduct! If we have not as yet learned to respect the right and dignity of our brother or fellow man, then we have thereby guaranteed the stunting of our own spiritual as well as economic progression.

So what then is ultimately the key to a society's economic success? THE WORKING TOGETHER IN INTELLECTUAL UNITY, ONENESS AND HARMONY, FREE FROM THE ELEMENT OF PARASITES AND LEECHES! If a nation of people cannot police itself to keep exploiters out, then that nation has not matured to where it can participate in the affairs of intergalactic societies!

The moment our consciousness extends itself to include a desire for the welfare of our neighbour as much as that of our own, only then have we laid the foundation for societal economic success and healing. Can we muster concern for the welfare of our fellow man, or that of the animal kingdom? Can we inconvenience ourselves not to pollute this planet with excessive consumption (waste) by limiting our production only to things essential in raising all humanity to a life in dignity? When we have broken through the barrier of individualism and expanded our consciousness to include the rest of creation in our desires for the enjoyment of life for all, only then have we laid the foundation for our emotional, physical and economic wellbeing.

"We know now that government by organized money is just as dangerous as government by organized mob."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, 1936

CHAPTER FIVE:

THE GREAT CURRENCY MELT-DOWN

THE PHILOSOPHY OF A MONEY-FREE ECONOMY

To suggest the removal of all currency everywhere and expect billions of workers and professionals to labour without promise of "pay" for the welfare of all, as opposed to merely for themselves and their immediate family, undoubtedly tests the imagination of many to the limit. And yet exactly that is the reality with all cosmic societies on higher planes of existence. At this point each reader has to examine his heart and decide for himself or herself, whether or not he or she is ready for a lifestyle of selfless contribution in return for the right of access to the totality of wealth a society is capable to produce.

The universal time clock on Earth says it is "graduation time" for the human race. Why? Because we are quickly running out of time to get our house in order. If we do not get our mind waves (belief systems) corrected to where we become prepared and worthy of inheriting the world to come, in other words, if we do not make ourselves worthy of a continuation of our lives in this physicalness and become heirs of this planet in the glories of its renewal, then we simply will not survive the onslaught of soon-to-be natural disasters this planet will cast upon us all.

Many will at that time be too overwhelmed by fear of bad things to come, to not run away from the transporter beams of the Brotherhood's ships after their descent for lift-off of the human race, and for doing so condemn themselves to perish in earthquakes, fires and floods, as continents sink and others rise from the ocean floors.

So get control of your fears, people, and don't think your lease on life has ended with the obituary of the phenomenon of finance. If the lease on life would end with the burial of a money system, then indeed intelligent life forms can not be expected beyond that of our own planet. Yet we perceive good health and vitality present in the lives of all our lighted extraterrestrial friends, and that in far greater measure than we have ever witnessed upon this planet. We believe the transition from a money-controlled economy to that of a money-free economy will begin to be initiated before mother Earth "cleans house," so to speak, and we do feel it to be essential, that the hearts and minds of the people become prepared for a reality without money in the emerging era to come, inasmuch as qualifying ones will participate in the reseeded of this planet.

The philosophy of the money elite is like a religion, which is doomed to failure and embarrassment, and will crumble in face of emerging realities from the Universe, just like any other religious system. And they should, for it is nothing but proper that in a contest between philosophy (religion, doctrine, or protocols) and reality, reality should prevail. Truth in the end will invariably rise to the top for all to see. And here is the test of true intelligence: do we possess the fortitude of discarding outmoded misconceptions in favour of reality? Reality is never something one can escape from for too long. Those who today swear by the philosophy of "might is always right" and "the end sanctifies the means," and in the execution of such philosophy hurl at us the diabolical force of corrupted financial power, will in the end be crushed by reality and viewed for all to see as the greatest fools this planet has ever seen!

In fairness however even to the perpetrators of such iniquity one must always reserve judgment and consider, that just as much as we have power to change our mind as to which philosophy we wish to embrace, so do they. And who is to argue with all the good, which some day may come from even the most powerful of their ilk, when their philosophy is being replaced by reality? Reality here dictating the realization that "it is better not to bite the hand that feeds you!" – the hand here being that of the people.

The track record of our current financial system has done little else but bitten our hands. With the rise of universal reality decency at last will govern leaders of how the people under their care should be treated. And if a reformed elitist, who has thoroughly learned his lesson of life of what not to do, and how not to fan the fires of misery for ordinary people, then this writer would be the last one to not want to live under his stewardship. The notion that "power corrupts and unlimited power corrupts without limit" is correct only as far as we are dealing with corrupted minds. If we however are dealing with individuals who have progressed far past that primitive stage of conduct, then that saying's logic does no longer apply. If righteous rule can be made as much a reality as unrighteous rule, which exists in abundance, then it stands to reason that righteous people have indeed the inherent ability to govern righteously, and not be corrupted by power!

There are none wielding greater power than those beings, who freely travel the expanses of our Universe at the speed of a thought. Their craft are equipped with weapons, which can blow this planet apart in an instant, and yet even in full view of seeing the elite of this world in sworn hostility toward them, these free ones of the cosmos will not so much as even lift a finger against them except for the power of the pen. Why not? Because they cannot be corrupted by power. They will not lower themselves to the level of elitist conduct, but rather preserve their dignity in righteousness.

THE MECHANICS OF A MONEY-FREE ECONOMY

When Mr. Towers says that "anything which is physically possible can also be made financially possible," he means nothing less than to say that ALL RESOURCES OF A SOCIETY CAN AT ALL TIMES BE DRAWN ON FOR THE BENEFIT OF ALL! The extent of "benefit for all" is merely limited by the availability of brainpower (technology), natural resources, land suitable for agriculture and the number of people willing to work. The totality of all such before-stated resources is what constitutes "real wealth." This wealth has nothing to do with money or gold. The usefulness of gold ends where the uses for it in a society lie. Any value attributed to this particular metal over and above that limit is purely artificial and for no other purpose than that of gain (profit, control, power).

And here is how certain individuals can be recognized: DO THEY WANT SOMETHING FOR NOTHING? DO THEY WANT BENEFITS, THEY THEMSELVES HAVE NEITHER EARNED NOR WORKED FOR? DO WE KNOW OF INDIVIDUALS, WHO LOVE TO FOCUS ON HOW TO BEST USE THE MASSES' TOIL FOR THEIR PERSONAL GAIN (PROFIT, CONTROL, POWER)? IF SO, THEN IN THEM MUST WE IDENTIFY THE NATURALLY-BORN PARASITES OF MANKIND!

They are however greatly outnumbered by the many, who would wish to contribute for dignity's sake. If this great majority would begin to understand the detrimental consequences of the unrighteously controlled money system they are forced to toil under, then their naturally-born slave masters would quickly be stripped of their unfair advantage and be made truly equal to all.

In an economy functioning without a system of finance, the Engineer would continue to design automated equipment for the farmer to harvest his land, the farmer would not stop growing food and the truckers not cease to drive their rigs to pick it up. The carpenter will continue to build houses for those who have none, and the refineries would remain open for gasoline until the Engineers have found alternate energy sources. Where everyone will be guaranteed unconditional access to essentials of life, no one will panic, but rather have time to decide, how to contribute with his or her talents to the benefit of all in return for such access. People will love and protect their new-found freedom against those, who may dare to ensnare them, and ensure that none of them will succeed.

A tremendous amount of leisure time will be generated, as full advantage is being taken from automated systems for the production of consumer goods, and once the market is saturated, the production output can be conveniently reduced without negative consequences and be limited to only keeping up with market demands. The notion "full employment is a desirable goal" will become a thing of the past and be replaced by the objective of "maximum leisure time for all." A reduction of production output will be welcomed, as less waste will be generated at its consumption level. Every member of society will consider himself or herself an owner of it all, and with their lives fight for the preservation of this economic freedom. Yet that may never be necessary for as long as none could be found to overturn it. Since demands on production will exclusively be regulated by demand, production will never be in excess of natural consumption, eliminating the need for "production at all costs (waste) so profits can be maximized."

Property rights are honoured and protected by law, and no one will be compelled to part with any production of his own unless voluntarily offered as his or her contribution to any or all.

We believe, with proper introduction of these concepts, sound, logical, thinking, and naturally intelligent people will conclude within the powers of their own reasonings, that a closed society can easily look after its needs without the use of a medium of exchange or system of money. It is ultimately the people, who will decide for themselves, whether or not they want to become participants of such an economic community after having examined for themselves the pros and cons of such a plan. The possibilities for happiness and a feeling of true freedom are immense, and we are not saying that no societal progression is possible beyond that type of economics. What we are saying is, we do not believe that progression is possible in any spiritual way without first having taken this particular step into becoming part of a society, which functions on the basis of absence of money! Children must pass through lessons of lower grades first before expecting to graduate as masters of anything. The human race in its progressional steps is no exception here. Certain lessons must be learned before we can move on – and this is undoubtedly one of them. Good night!

*"Banking was conceived in iniquity and born in sin....
(If the banker's fortunes were to) disappear as they ought to, then this would be a better and happier world to live in....
But if you want to continue to be slaves of the bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let bankers continue to create money and control credit!"*

EPILOGUE

The ultimate annihilation of a global system of debauchery will be precluded by an admission of defeat from its inventors. They will make a statement of significance within their secret chambers, which will long be remembered by the many who have made themselves worthy to inherit the Earth in its renewal. Here is what they will say:

"We, of the royal faction of debauched tankards, do hereby place within our seal that mandatory statement of fulfilment, which has left us without words to even protect ourselves within the plumage of despised revolution!"

"This, my brothers of elitist faction, was in fact placed within our grave site for all those who mediate at the front, that from this point forth we hereby broadside have exposed ourselves by our very mandate."

"The people are wise, in (that) they will place on our grave sites that epitome, which states very simply that "Only the stars in their wisdom" gain prudence to rule over us, for we are the epitome of their glory!"

(Quotation contributed by HATONN, Esquire of the Nations).

QUIPS by Reni Sentana-Ries from December 30, 1998, 1:30 am:

The indebtedness of a society is only a small indicator for its tremendous potential to create wealth in the form of goods and services. Why, you may ask? Because the demand for credit tells of society's hunger for production to satisfy its natural needs, and those needs seem to forever outstrip its availability of real credit to do so.

Today's finance-driven economies have created plunder of the nations' natural and human resources. And how so? Because all of today's economies are profit driven by big business and big industries, which have a need to grow all on their own lest they collapse, and their need for resources are unlike that of the families, which make up the nation. And what are the needs of a family? Food, shelter, clothing, education, transportation, and leisure time. We know of no industrial nation which has built its economy around those basic needs of the family.

After all smoke has cleared, and misconceptions of what constitutes a healthy economy have been done away with, it is in the end the nation's families, which create the wealth of the nations. Are they not? Now, if that is in all finality the case, then why should those family units not be granted for free that which they so efficiently and abundantly produce? And what should in all finality be the means of payment for all the myriad needs of business and industry? THE PURCHASE ORDER!! The purchase order alone will guarantee an industry's survival, even if demand is reduced to only a trickle of its productive capacity. No industrial steward will lose his business by reason of lack of demand for product. Even no production at all will still guarantee business survival if its legitimate means of payment were THE PURCHASE ORDER!

To facilitate a workable transition from a money-driven economy to a purchase order society requires in the end to make money obsolete. But how to do that efficiently and smoothly will be a secret all of this author's own, and will not be described within the pages of this work, nor will we ever discuss this issue with anyone at this time, for THAT, we believe, IS THE KEY TO THE NEW ERA, THE KEY, WHICH WE WILL NEVER DIVULGE UNTIL NATIONAL LEADERS AND THEIR SECURITY FORCES COME TO US AS THEIR EQUALS AND FRIENDS, AND BEGIN TO TREAT US WITH RESPECT WE ARE DESERVING OF!

INTRODUCTION

All of us are being born behind the veil of forgetfulness, and our challenge throughout each additional incarnation lies in a need to not repeat mistakes again, i. e. errors of judgment in our past we can only recall through feeble subconscious remembering. Religious associations are such errors, and must not be repeated lest our progression becomes impeded in this life once again.

YET THERE IS NO NEED FOR SHAME IN ERROR WHILE ON OUR UPWARD JOURNEY TOWARD THE LIGHT (seeing we operate from behind the veil of forgetfulness), UNLESS PERSISTENCE IN ERROR CONTINUES TO RULE OUR LIVES BEYOND THE DAY WHEN LIGHT HAS BEGUN TO SHINE INTO THE RECESSES OF OUR MINDS! In this dissertation we will not throw stones at those still lingering in the halls of organized religion, lest our own glass house of past failures in sound judgment becomes shattered from flying boulders as their response to our assault!

Church membership is sometimes passionately defended around a claim of church authenticity (legitimacy or exclusivity), i.e. "Our church is the one and only true Church of God on this planet, and it is our duty to be a member of it!" That sounds logical, but is only true provided universal reality in absolute fullness has indeed sanctioned that claim and lent it veracity. An outside observer however should become rightfully suspicious, when he or she sees numerous churches claiming exclusivity, whereby "lost sheep" are then compelled to a judgment call of choice they are hardly qualified to make by virtue of their admitted state-of-mind confusion (of being "lost" in a world of religious options), only to become trapped in a denominational world of doctrinal limitations. It can hardly be said that a "lost sheep" really knows it should be looking for universal reality in order to see its soul restored to the peace and serenity it is so desperately looking for.

THE MOMENT MORE THAN ONE CHURCH MAKES ITS PUBLIC CLAIM OF EXCLUSIVITY, THAT CLAIM BECOMES HOLLOW FOR ALL, FOR LOGIC

REQUIRES THE PRESENCE OF ONENESS OF TRUTH, AND ALSO UNIFORMITY OF LANGUAGE, SOMETHING SECTARIANISM CANNOT DELIVER! THE TRUTH OF THE UNIVERSE WILL NEVER BE FOUND WITHIN THE CONFINED SPACE OF SECTARIAN BOUNDARIES, FOR THAT WOULD INDEED BE LIKE PLACING A LUXURY LINER INTO A SODA BOTTLE!

CHAPTER ONE

WHAT WENT WRONG IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION?

RELIGION – A MISNOMER FOR TRUTH

The term "religion" (An organized system of beliefs and rituals centering on a supernatural being or beings – American Heritage Dictionary) should never in the first place have found its way into our language, as its definition alone reeks of departure from what reality is all about. Reality has nothing to do with being supernatural, for all reality is natural as it extends right up to the 16th or higher dimension. Nothing the Universe has to offer is "supernatural" in its essence, for all is based upon the realism of universal laws as well as universal scientific laws, wherein all life can find freedom of expression in absolute totality of existence. This planet and all of its life forms on it (and in it) is part and parcel of our known Universe, which includes the Milky Way Galaxy as well as all galaxies and cosmic phenomena. Within such environment man's religious belief systems become irrelevant, because they can never include the totality of ALL THERE IS. To turn around then and claim God is ALL THERE IS is rather vague and incomprehensible, as consensus of who or what "God" is cannot be found in worlds of religious dogma and is only available to minds in comprehension of Universe reality.

There is no need for mysticism around the concept of "God" or "angels" or "avatars", for all can be verily understood within the parameters of Universe reality! BECOME FAMILIAR WITH UNIVERSE REALITY, AND ALL RELIGIOUS MISCONCEPTIONS WILL VANISH LIKE A FOG BEFORE THE MORNING SUN! Locked into the knowledge of the Universe is the secret for man's release from religious error! Obtain that knowledge and apply it correctly, and you will have credited your soul with an entry into hallways of universal realities with all their glories and possibilities intact!

Truth in its absolute form is nothing less than universal reality (or Universe reality, if you wish). THIS ABSOLUTE ASPECT OF REALITY IS COMPREHENSIBLE TO THE HUMAN MIND, FOR THE HUMAN MIND IS INDEED MADE UP OF THAT ESSENCE WHICH HAS MADE OTHER INTELLIGENCES SUPREME IN KNOWLEDGE. AND HERE THE SUPREMACY IN KNOWLEDGE CONSISTS OF TRUTH IN ITS ABSOLUTE FORM! At this point we can probably see why religious dogma has nothing to do with truth anymore, for it has no ability to deliver that kind of truth. Hence our conclusion: Religion and truth have nothing in common.

RELIGION – A BROADER VIEWPOINT IS NECESSARY

There exists a fallacy in this world today which has limited the understanding of what religion really is. In this fallacy the term "religion" finds itself merely connected with god-worship, sin-aspects, morality-teachings and congregational gatherings for "fellowship" purposes. NOT GOOD ENOUGH! We cannot ignore philosophical dogma! It has often been said in religious circles, that their membership is "a way of life." We agree, since one can easily recognize distinct behaviour patterns unique to each religious viewpoint. Now, if organized religious dogma is capable of creating behaviour patterns, then organized philosophical dogma can do the same. So, what is our point? The point is, we cannot ignore organizations based on extreme philosophical viewpoints and exclude them from the category of religions, if that viewpoint represents the opposite of what "true-blue religion" has ever tried to achieve, that is, to make "bad" people into "good" people by instilling in them sound ethical behaviour.

In this writing we will not call subversive organizations by name, however should you during the course of your life's journey ever have run into a strong, powerful, secretive and yet influential organization, which teaches it is okay to lie, break promises as well as contracts when it becomes convenient, deceive, steal under the guise of legitimacy, entice wars and racial tensions, considers a large sector of populations merely fit for exploitation, encourage moral decay by creating conditions of family breakdown, or refer to people not of their ilk as "beasts", all the while justifying themselves by claiming superiority of status, then remember one thing: what you have before you is nothing less than a religious organization which has created for itself the antithesis of all that Universal Oneness of the gods and the Creation ever stand for! You have before you the literal manifestation of darkness with all its personages firmly entrenched in its own hierarchical organized structure.

To sum up our observations let's say this much: GROUP PERCEPTION IS ALWAYS LIMITED, AND NONE CLINGING TO IT CAN RECOGNIZE UNIVERSAL REALITY. RELIGIOUS AND PHILOSOPHICAL DOGMA WILL FOREVER BE STUMBLING BLOCKS TO THOSE SEEKING REINTEGRATION INTO THE ONENESS OF THE UNIVERSE, OR BETTER, INTO "ALL THAT IS," WHICH IS TRUTH IN ITS ABSOLUTE FORMAT! If ultimate truth is the harbour into which we endeavour to steer our life boat, then let us no longer neglect the other half of our brain, the one that lets us see what lies beyond, and we will thereby have effectively ended the stunting of our growth and finally discovered the beauties of creation in its glory and totality!

HOW MANY GODS ARE THERE?

Who spoke to the true prophets of old? Who can truthfully claim authorship to their writings? God? Wait a minute! Not even today do people have a clear understanding who or what "God" is! Logic must rule out the singularity of godhood, for if there can be one god, there can also be another or many more "gods," for that matter. Reconcile this concept with the statement in the Bible which says "Ye are all gods!" then the idea of a singular "God" having spoken to the prophets becomes inconsistent with the Bible's own theme. Tampering with text and testimony of the true prophets of ancient times are partly responsible for the creation of monotheistic dogma, set up for the purpose of population control by fear of a cruel, vengeful and angry "God." (At this point we will interject and clarify, that mainly responsible for the notion of a single-being godhood is the downloading and effective marketing of perfected systems of religiosity through the instrumentality of false prophets. More on that under the next heading).

The prophets of old received their words from the masters of the universe, individuals, who had learned all of their lessons of proper conduct while on successions of lower dimensional incarnations; but now they occupy the status and power and authority as "gods" of a fifth dimensional plane and upward!

And at what point will "ye," the "gods," become individuals who will also speak to prophets of third-dimensional planes of existence? ONLY AFTER "YE," THE "GODS," HAVE IN YOUR OWN EFFORTS OF PERFECTING INTELLECTUAL UNION WITH THE MIND OF THE UNIVERSE PROGRESSED TO WHERE YOU ARE PERMITTED TO JOIN THE OTHER "GODS" IN THE HEAVENS OF MORE DIGNIFIED PLANES OF EXISTENCE, WHERE PEACE, PROGRESS AND ONENESS ARE THE "ORDER OF THE DAY!" Seek after this particular heartbeat of the Universe, and you will find not only abundant joy in knowing the Brother- and Sisterhoods of Light, but also discover a greater ability to pay your bills, as cash from unpaid tithings is freed up for the raising of your economic life into one of greater dignity!

REMARKS ON THE MATTER OF TRUE AND FALSE PROPHETS

Many "gods" spoke to the true prophets of yesteryear! And at this point let us no longer differentiate between a true prophet and a "true channel," for the "true" prophets of old were no less than what "true" channels of today are, namely "SECRETARIES" FAITHFULLY WRITING DOWN THE WORDS AS THEY HEAR THEM TELEPATHICALLY SPOKEN FROM THE BROTHERHOODS OF LIGHT! Conversely, we also have "false" prophets. These are "false" channels, who faithfully write down the words as telepathically spoken to them by DARKENED BROTHERHOODS, or the BROTHERHOODS OF DARKNESS, which is the luciferean aspect of our universal duality. Do we now understand the difference between a "true" prophet (channel) and a "false" prophet, who is also a channel? THE FORMER CHANNELS THE GODS OF LIGHT, WHILE THE LATTER CHANNELS THE GODS OF DARKNESS! And by what characteristics can we, the people, recognize, whether the channel (prophet) we deal with or believe in is of the Light or of the Darkness? Dogma aside, people, the gods of light will lead you to economic freedom and happiness, while the gods of darkness will trap you into economic subservience through tithings, rules, obligations, taxes, laws, commandments, rituals, meetings, secrecy, sacrifices and sundry other means!! The gods of darkness will scatter your focus away from you, while the gods of light will call upon you to discover yourself by discovering your godhood within – the gateway to the gods of universal oneness – and call upon you to be loyal and truthful to yourself first! And this truthfulness to yourself has nothing to do with being selfish!

On the 27th of September 1996 this writer petitioned for one of the Commanders or Masters of the lighted side to elaborate on the following questions: Is our understanding correct, when we say that some ancient and modern religions are an outgrowth of falsified holy texts of true prophets? And have other religions been precipitated in all their intricate falsehoods as brilliant religious systems upon the people in the form of perfected and completed frauds, dictated to false prophets from luciferian spirits? Among other statements in answer to this question Commander Melix spoke in no uncertain terms when he said:

"... You must understand, dear ones, not all complimentary dialogue (holy text) was to be adjusted (falsified) to fit the bill (make it suitable for public consumption), but rather AS A HINDRANCE TO COHERENT DIALOGUE (truthful expressions) THOSE OTHER MASTERS (gods of darkness) OF THE UNIVERSE DID SO TO WRITE DOWN THEIR OWN DIALOGUE (religious material) AND TELL TO OTHERS (the people) THAT INDEED IT WAS OF THE GODS OF THEIR (the people's) CHOOSING (giving their system the appearance of divine approval). ANY PLACE IN SCRIPTURE OR OTHERWISE WRITINGS OF DICTATIONAL METHOD (channelled material) WHICH

EXPLOIT THE PEOPLE AND DESTROY ALL THAT WOULD POSSESS THEM TO LIVE IN MERRIMENT THROUGHOUT THEIR INCARNATIONS, WAS NEVER FROM US!"

Isn't it remarkable that Commander Melix connects interdimensional information (prophecy) obtained via channels (prophets) with matters of economics, wherein such information leads the people to either economic freedom and happiness or conversely to economic bondage and subsequent misery, depending on whether the source of such information is either of the light or of darkness? Messages through prophets (or prophetesses) from the Brotherhood or Sisterhood of Light remain invariably consistent with the harmonics of the Universe, i.e. the totality of "all that is." Anything falling outside of aforementioned qualification are either man-made heresies through alterations of holy texts or entire and brilliant systems of religious frauds, inherited from the darkened gods of this Universe. Either way, both forms of falsehoods began to be fed to the people as the "words of God," until eventually the perpetrators of such debauchery (be they darkened gods, tamperers of holy texts, false prophets or leaders of religious systems) became victims of their own manufactured lies in the course of a string of subsequent incarnations. BEWARE OF SPREADING LIES ABOUT ANYTHING, LEST YOU MAY SOME DAY FIND YOURSELF FEEDING AT THE TROUGH OF YOUR OWN DECEPTIONS! This karmic backlash will then be compounded by the problem of you not being able to remember that it was you who laid the trap holding you snared!

RELIGIOUS BLOOPERS

Numerous are the booby traps along the religious trail to imagined glory! We already know who laid them there, but let us elaborate further! Just look and notice the men (or women) most highly visible and profiting the greatest from the marketing of dogma, and then you will have found your answer as to whose snare you stepped into, when you decided to uphold that industry with your donations! These people reincarnate, you know, and when they do, their challenge is each time to rid themselves of their own vices of religious debauchery. But most fail and continue to hurl themselves into incarnational attempts of cleansing from this awful karmic baggage, only to see themselves fail over and over. Yet this is not a cruel game the Brotherhood of Light plays upon them, but rather THEY DO IT TO THEMSELVES! Before the Karmic Board only "stocktaking" is being done to see whether a particular entity has finally broken the cycle of its own religious or philosophical entrapment. Counsel is given, resolutions are made, and on with further incarnational attempts at reconstruction of their own DNA-ingrained behaviour patterns. Progress only comes to them, when at last some subconscious remembering surfaces, which says, "Wait a minute, why do I feel uncomfortable at the idea of joining this organization? It stands for all the values I believe in, and yet I know that upon joining I will lose a certain amount of my freedom! Why am I worried about taking this route?" Woe onto the soul that decides again to embrace the falsehoods of religion or falls for the lure of "easy money" as reward for feeding the people lies! Remember, it is easier to teach a child honesty after its parents caught it lying for the first time than it is to reform a habitual liar! Universal justice has its way to seek out transgressors of Universal Law!

However, we did promise to speak about "religious bloopers," did we not? A more prominent one is the atonement heresy, which says that "God" punishes by death (shedding of blood) "his son" (or animals) for our "sins," so that we will not have to suffer the consequences of our own misguided actions.

Any "God" demanding blood of the innocent, whether that of man or best, is a cruel task master, and for the good of the people should they dethrone him as unfit to rule over their consciences, for his government does nothing but rain havoc upon their heads, in this life, as well in future ones to come! "Gods" demanding such cruelties are most certainly creations of man's perverted mind waves! These mind waves have permitted the introduction of most diabolical spirits of dark forces to enter their lives, parading as "angels of light" under the guise of religion.

Under the Christian label they go so far as to ascribe to the death of a noble messenger the power of cleansing from their own sinfulness, and in doing so elevated his status to that of "God" himself, something they would never dare do for themselves, even though their own Bible teaches them otherwise (quote: "Ye are all gods"). And so again we have before us one more case where people shirk their own responsibility for their actions by trying to make someone else suffer the karmic consequences of their "sins".

See, universal laws are neither young nor old, they are timeless. They were in force in the days of Israelite temple building just as much as they are in force today. And anything morally wrong then is just as morally wrong now, FOR UNIVERSAL LAWS OF JUSTICE REMAIN UNAFFECTED BY THE ANNALS OF TIME AND THE REQUIREMENTS FOR MAN'S SPIRITUAL PROGRESSION CANNOT BE ALTERED BY NEITHER MAN, ANCIENTS, GODS, SAGES, COMMANDERS, AVATARS, MASTERS OR CREATION ITSELF!! FOR GOD'S SAKE, PEOPLE, REALIZE THAT YOUR RELIGIOUS SYSTEM OF SACRIFICE WAS CREATED BY YOUR RELIGIOUS LEADERS AS A PROFITABLE BUSINESS VENTURE! EXPEDIENCE DICTATED THE USURPING OF YOUR CONSCIENCE AND EXPLOITATION OF YOUR GUILT COMPLEX FOR PROFIT! There was money to be made for doing so!

Christianity is considered an offshoot of Judaism. The former has deeply entrenched within it the philosophy of blood-letting. It is called: "Jesus-died-on-the-Cross-for-my-sins-that-I-might-have-forgiveness-through-the-shedding-of-His-blood!" I consider this doctrine an abomination and a gross injustice toward the person thus elevated (or better: debased) to the status of a universal sacrificial lamb. Elemental universal justice does not work this way: Each of us must learn to face up to our own personal deficiencies, and not call upon someone else to bear the consequence for us.

Religion for profit was to continue, even if it meant to pervert the message of this most noble messenger Earth has ever seen! For almost 2000 years he was to become the whipping boy for sins not of his own, and to his utter disgust he was made the people's most prominent object of worship! Throughout history his name was dragged into all sorts of atrocities, in his name millions were slaughtered and against their will returned into the Diva Chan. Yet during all of these years his voice could hardly be heard, as not until today has he made the restoration of his soiled character possible on a world-wide scale. (Do not think for a moment such vindication of his name is only happening through the writings of Mr. Sentana-Ries. This noble one of the Light has found his own way of making himself heard by the people in these last days!) SEEK AFTER HIS WORDS OF TODAY! YOU WILL FIND THEM IF YOU DO, AND NOT BE DISAPPOINTED!.

RELIGION FOR MONEY

As already indicated, religion today is a sorry money-making industry. As time goes by we see this industry teetering on the verge of bankruptcy (which may have various reasons, granted), but money-collecting nonetheless, for as long as the pews remain warm from the bottoms of individuals, who have yet to think for themselves and learn to no longer permit their pastors or bishops to rule over them in matters of faith. However the moment people begin to realize, that as far back as 3000 years ago the imposition of mandatory tithing was nothing more than a money and power grab over the people's pocketbooks and that spiritual progression can only be achieved via discovery of "godhood within," they will seriously re-evaluate their membership in various churches. Remember, whosoever has the power to join a church, also has the right to leave. This is not exactly a decision the minister or church hierarchy can control, but would certainly love to in order to preserve their salaries for the end of each month. We assume many church leaders would be mortified at the idea of having to compete for a job in the marketplace and be expected to support their families at minimum wage rates. Yet never once did they seem to display concern over their membership's plight of struggling in an economically hostile environment for as long as the tithe ended up in the church's bank account!

FOR ONCE, PEOPLE, DO YOURSELF A FAVOUR AND BECOME "POLITICALLY CORRECT" AND CONSIDER YOUR OWN WELFARE FIRST BEFORE PARTING WITH YOUR HARD-EARNED CASH FOR THE BENEFIT OF SOMEONE ELSE!! There is no doubt in our minds you can find ways of spending your money wiser!

MORE BLOOPERS EXAMINED

The writings of ancient prophets have almost completely been stripped of references in the Bible to REINCARNATION. Inferences still remaining today are oversights by ancient tamperers of holy texts, but strong prejudices against the idea of reincarnation prevent the modern interpreter of the Bible from discovering them. Why, do you think, was "reincarnation" removed from it and by whom? Well, only the religious aristocracy of the day controlled prophetic texts and was educated enough in reading and writing to accomplish the feat of tampering with these holy scripts effectively and all this without being discovered for what they were doing. For what reason were the words of the Masters altered? GIVE THE PEOPLE TRUTH, AND YOU GIVE THEM POWER! BUT TELL THEM LIES INSTEAD, AND ONLY THEN CAN YOU CONTROL THEM AND MAKE THEM DO YOUR OWN BIDDING!

Authorities in control of the Dead Sea Scrolls today will not allow the release of all of their translations. Why not? COULD IT BE, THAT THESE SCROLLS CONTAIN UNAMBIGUOUS REFERENCES TO REINCARNATION, WHICH, IF RELEASED TO THE PUBLIC, WOULD UPEND THE ENTIRE SYSTEM OF RELIGIOSITY IN THE WESTERN WORLD? We certainly believe so. The doctrine of eternal damnation would come crashing down like a building without foundation. And who would dare to incur the wrath of the entire religious industry? Obviously not the people in control of the Scrolls! Yet little do they know, that BY WITHHOLDING THE TRUTH FROM THE PEOPLE THEY BRING UPON THEMSELVES A KARMIC BACKLASH OF UNIMAGINABLE PROPORTIONS, FROM WHICH IT MAY TAKE THEM MANY LIFESTREAMS TO RECOVER! THE TRUTH IS OUT THERE FOR TO BE SPOKEN AND NOT TO BE CONCEALED IN OBSCURITY! HOW ELSE CAN HUMANITY AT LARGE RID ITSELF OF ITS WOES? We wish the custodians of the scrolls to answer us that one!

At this point we will burden the reader with only one more prominent blooper, and then leave well alone our detailed examination of further Christian falsehoods. JMMANUEL was indeed a "CHRISTED ONE," and for the good of our souls SO OUGHT WE TO BECOME CHRISTED!! The title of being "christed" is no more than a state-of-mind of being "enlightened" and "immersed" in the knowledge of universal laws and of the wisdom of the ancients. Jesus Christ (whoever gave him that name, is irrelevant) had access to wisdom, which made him a christed person, AND WHOEVER ELSE BECOMES IMBUED WITH HEAVENLY WISDOM OF THE ANCIENTS BECOMES A "CHRIST" (OR A CHRISTED PERSON, IF YOU WISH)! The christhood of our souls we all owe to ourselves, for without that hallmark of character we will never become reunited with the Brother- and Sisterhoods of Light. And who are they? We have mentioned before, they are those, who have gone before us, our noble forefathers, who have passed all tests of worthy conduct in the realms of third-dimensional incarnations, and to whom we can always look up to for guidance without being led astray by their example or teaching!

For religious leaders to pronounce Christhood on one man only, and then state that only he and none else can become perfected, denies indeed the right to godhood to anyone else who has ever achieved that status or ever will in times to come. Of course, these deniers have the right to become tripped up by their own lies while the rest of us will strive for and attain godhood in love, light and perfection, as we see it in him whom we know of by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Lord SANANDA ESU JMMANUEL of today!

And who was his father? The Christian world says "God!" Nonsense. Others say "The Holy Ghost." More nonsense! A ghost has no ability to impregnate, only beings with physicalness can do that. Many say "His was a miraculous conception." In the Universe, of which this planet is a part of, there are no "miracles", there are only laws of nature or of physics properly applied to produce predictable results. Why is it so difficult to believe, that his father was none else of lesser status than the archangel Gabriel, who was working with Mary at that time to prepare her for his son? Lord Gabriel most certainly possessed all attributes of physicalness required for a successful impregnation of Mary! PEOPLE, THERE IS NO MORE EFFECTIVE WAY TO PRODUCE OFFSPRING OF ONE'S OWN GENETIC PURITY THAN TO PERMIT THE BIRTH OF A CHILD UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES AS THOSE OF JESUS CHRIST's!

What made him special was not so much the unique circumstances of his conception or birth as much as his calling as messenger of the true gods and goddesses of this Universe. He faithfully passed on instructions he received, and thus began to teach the people the Laws of the Universe, which teachings eventually caused him to fall out of favour with rulers of the religious establishment! The end result of his mission is too well known to even mention. Now, because the circumstances around his birth were somewhat outside of the norm for childbirth, man began to mystify this occasion and create the notion, that "God" was his father. The natural consequence, of course, became the deification of "the Son" with all its abominations of person worship. To Jesus Christ the outgrowth of this misconception became the ultimate personal humiliation and detriment to his mission and work, for no man with "love for truth" in his heart would frolic at the idea of becoming centre-stage "God" player in the hearts of men and women who need to grow in understanding in order to see them linked back into communion with the rest of creation.

JESUS CHRIST TAKES NO PLEASURE IN BEING THE OBJECT OF WORSHIP OF THE PEOPLE! WE ARE TO WORSHIP NO ONE NOR ANYTHING, FOR WE OURSELVES CONTAIN THE SEEDS OF THAT ESSENCE, WHICH WE MISTAKENLY SO ARE AT TIMES INCLINED TO WORSHIP!

C H A P T E R T W O

THE GODS ARE ALIVE AND WELL!

OUR BEST FRIENDS AND RELATIVES REDISCOVERED AT LAST!

We have already alluded to "God" meaning the life-giving essence of creation in its totality. To attribute then to God the individuality as that of a singular person is a widespread misconception indeed. If from that viewpoint we were asked to explain what He looks like, we'd really run into difficulties, as we would then have to explain how He can be present everywhere and not also have a singular body as large as the Universe. How we then upon our "resurrection" could actually "see" God as a reward promised unto the "saints," on the assumption that He is so large in size, stretches the imagination beyond its capacity of reasoning. So let's forget about a singular God presiding over "all that is" unless we speak of the spirit of ONENESS OF ALL GODS AND GODDESSES EVERYWHERE presiding in unity over the totality of what we call creation!

It is high time indeed for a rediscovery of our best friends and relatives up in the sky above the continents of this planet. For millennia they have stationed their beautiful motherships there as a constant reminder of their presence and readiness to guide the developing human race towards reintegration with their own kindly spirits (essences). At times they go on special missions with their dingers (shuttle craft) down to the surface for contact with certain individuals or are on scientific excursions of data collecting, and so on those occasions their craft are often seen and photographed by many witnesses. They are silvery, circular domed vehicles with amazing flight agilities and great elusiveness, others are cigar-shaped and possess similar agility and speed. There are many stationary craft in the cosmos as large as the American continent – big cities in the "sky." Some of the smaller dingers are surrounded by auras visible to the human eye, reminding us of their extraterrestrial origin. But that does not mean they are "alien." They do not try to instil fear in anybody, although that often occurs, because people have not been briefed sufficiently to realize, that they are friendly and have nothing to fear from these extraterrestrial visitors to Earth. If the people only knew that many of these visitors are benevolent relatives of past incarnations, which they at that time knew personally, they would surely change their attitude toward them and welcome them instead of being afraid. The only "aliens" upon this planet are those who mean to do the extraterrestrials harm, i.e. our governments and the military, who have set up telescopes equipped with laser guns to shoot their craft down in flight in order to reverse engineer their technology. Also many satellites sent into space as "military cargo" is nothing more than weaponry to do them and us harm. Of course this information is carefully being kept away from the people as they classify such endeavours "Top Secret."

The fact that some visitors from other worlds look differently from us does not mean they are hostile toward us. It also does not mean that they do not belong to the Brotherhoods of Light or operate outside of universal laws as we know them. We believe their mission is widely misunderstood when we hear of abductions for the purpose of offspring creation with their own kind. These visitors may be much smaller than you or I. They have disproportionately large heads and eyes compared to the rest of their bodies. But when they had for eons applied no wisdom by overemphasizing the development of intellect at the expense of emotions, their physical bodies altered from this kind of neglect. Someone we know personally was permitted on one occasion to come on board in order to view what they were doing firsthand. For the benefit of our readers, here is that person's report:

"Today is March 21, 1994. Firstly, when entities come to collect humans, they don't "drag" them anywhere. On the contrary – where mankind came up with that supposition – it is ridiculous as well as ludicrous. Entities with this kind of mind power simply levitate, and they use four, five, six, anywhere from five to seven small entities for that. They surround the person on both sides and at the end of the human, and they just walk them into the ship. There's nothing mysterious at all about it. There is no dragging.

Once they are in there, they are placed temporarily on a pallet (stretcher). Then they are moved the same way – by levitation – into a chamber which is laid up against a wall and doors which look much like glass, but they are of... I don't know what they are made of, I never asked. They close, and the human individual is left in... it's like a compression chamber, with the oxygen to match what the human likes, what's necessary. Because, as I say, the atmospheric conditions aren't good otherwise, and the human would get very sick or may even incur brain damage.

Concerning the horrors that are spoken about, and one I saw very clearly, with these entities not having emotions: They also have a section, where – they don't section their ship off as we would into different sections of laboratories – rather they intermingle everything they do all over the ship. Whereas the result is, where you have some entities working with fear, others with horror, others with joy, others with love. And instead of getting a foretaste of a little bit of emotion to balance it, each one concentrates on a certain emotion. Therefore you hear screaming, you hear laughing and the whole thing is a menagerie and very frightening to the human individual. These entities have very high pitched voices, which does not help. So there is the terror that they perceive.

As for the operation of extracting egg and semen: a long tube is run down and for the most part, the human patient is basically put out. They don't feel or hear anything. A long tube is inserted to the bottom of the throat. From there a little tube is going down just maybe two or three inches. From there is a laser beam light, which cuts away anything necessary. The reason for the little tube is, after the laser beam is cut, there is suction, which takes up either the ovary or the sperm, whichever is needed. While the tube is down, there is a big kind of arc that comes down and covers the whole face. None of this is horrifying, because, as I perceived, the individual is not awake.

Again the terror comes when it is explained to the individual human what has occurred for their own right of knowledge, which the entities grant them. So they have the right to know what is going on and occurring. When the female – and sometimes the male – perceive that an entity being born, which is half their child, is being left there, they become very terrified. They don't understand the concept of it being an entity, but still hold to it as being their child, and they should take it with them. They don't really understand the scope of what they're asking. The embryos, which are kept in fertilization, which some are growing anywhere from three to five months, are also in a chamber. And they are surrounded by a jelly-type liquid. And outside of that is air, air which is holding them suspended in this jelly-type liquid....

For the most part, in conclusion, these entities are not dangerous at all. Their methods are somewhat a little incongruous, but they try to keep the human as comfortable as possible. And it is the emotions of the humans, which brings the terror. There is not pain. That's completed."

Fundamentally speaking, humans have nothing to fear from extraterrestrial visitors. We would see much more such "traffic" upon this plane if it were not for the hostile attitude from our authorities who are continually displaying ill intent toward them.

Extraterrestrial spacecraft visitations occur from planetary systems within this Milky Way and other galaxies. Even our own solar system contains planets inhabited by people having mastered intergalactic travel, for they are permitted to do so because of their compliance to basic rules of conduct prevailing in the Universe (universal laws). Of course, they also at times stop over here on certain missions, and are as much involved in overseeing Earth's transition into the new era than those from Pleiades or the Andromeda Sector. Many societies from our own solar system are genetically deeply related to a variety of human races we find living on Earth.

Also many of our nobler forefathers, who, shall we say, have "graduated" from Earth after having learned most of their life lessons, we find now incarnated as either staff members or commanders of the millions of intergalactic stationary craft high above Earth's atmosphere. They have chosen incarnations of this more "elevated" kind, for it is their desire to help humanity at its crossroads, or equinoxal time slot, which in the end involves global evacuation, reassignment of people for reintegration into other planets and other tasks. The leadership for these many commanders, of course, is provided by the Masters, who are overseeing the entire operation of Earth's reclamation and preparation for a more glorious manifestation of humanity upon this plane. These Masters in turn cooperate fully with all intergalactic councils presided over by archangels, like Gabriel, Raphael, Michael, Orisis and others.

So we see, that whatever happens to planet Earth and its people is carefully supervised by friendly forces higher than our own or more powerful than any military might, for that matter. The motivation for all they do is LOVE FOR THIS PLANET AND ITS PEOPLE, although that love will not exclude the element of justice as a karmic response, backlashing upon the heads of the wicked.

COMMUNICATION MYSTERIES EXPLAINED

Much confusion exists around the tremendous efficiency, with which highly evolved entities communicate among themselves or with individuals on Earth, for instance. We must understand here, that at that level of evolvement telepathic abilities are honed to perfection and negate the need for "...making a trip to see Commander X in person and tell him, that we of the Polaris craft have just begun to notice the beginning of a slight wobble of planet Earth's spin axis on our computer screens." Even a rediscovery of man's telepathic abilities reveal, that distance is inconsequential when speaking of telepathic communication. For example, on one occasion we registered a message from a commander on a journey from as far as 500 billion light years away. (By the way, it took him only about four Earth hours to return back to his location in the sky, but he admitted, the trip was somewhat of a "strain on the engines.") You see, distance just does not matter. This is not to say, that telepathy is the only way, whereby they communicate words or thoughts. At times pre-recorded messages are being sent via equipment on ships, which tie in to telepathic frequencies. Many transmissions from ships can be detected by military monitoring devices, but never be deciphered.

In the wonderful world of telepathy one cannot only transmit strings of words in any language, but also anyone's thoughts and ideas, as well as picture images. To benefit from these methods of communication one has only to apply himself, for these skills can be learned and perfected just like any other skill. The fact that, generally speaking, humankind is quite unaware of these possibilities, does not preclude the fact that this form of communication is preferred by higher evolved entities. It probably is a far more efficient way of thought conveyance. We know true prophets of old as well as today have received their information from the gods by virtue of their abilities to communicate telepathically, and here speaking of gods we make no difference between commanders of intergalactic beam ships or the Masters, for both will speak the truth with ultimate passion as from an exalted being.

At this point we feel to issue a warning: Evolvement alone is no guarantee for receiving truthful information telepathically via the gift of true prophethood. In cases where out of neglect the screening process between essences of light vs. those of darkness is not maintained, then the possibility of deception becomes real, and this has nothing to do with sincerity. Even the finest of prophets can become sincerely deceived on a temporary basis. The difference here lies in what will the channel (or prophet/prophetess) do once the fraud has been discovered. A true messenger of truth will come into the light and clean house, and erect new standards for screening communicating consciousnesses in order to tighten security. It must be understood here, that for every light there also exists the equal and opposite element of darkness. It is for that selfsame reason that the gifts of true prophethood can also be used to the same effectiveness in the realm of darkness.

DIMENSIONS, PLANES, HEAVENS, HELLS – quite comprehensible!

Understanding planes of existence, also called "dimensions" or "heavens," really does not have to be all that difficult after all. Once we have grasped the reality of duality (light and darkness – spiritually speaking) cutting right through the middle of planes from the 4th dimension upward, then understanding "dimensions" does definitely not have to tax our comprehension to the limit! In third dimensional existences and downward the forces of light and darkness collide (intermingle) for the purpose of testing soul entities residing in them.

In trying to understand dimensions (heavens or planes of existence) the mental stumbling block here lies in a misinterpretation of the word "dimension," where people connect the "first" dimension with a line, two dimensions with an area and a three dimensional object with volume, containing area and depth respectively. A mind with this kind of understanding of what "dimensions" are, will indeed have difficulties comprehending when we speak of 4th, 5th (or higher) dimensional realities or planes of existence. All planes of existences are made up of "volume," if you will. The difference between a third dimensional object or an object from the 5th dimension is not shape, but frequency of its molecular structure. Matter vibrating at a higher internal frequency will be invisible to our eyes and therefore undetectable, for it radiates light at a frequency outside that of our eyes' range for detection. At that point both objects can easily pass through each other without colliding. Scientists will verify, that at the atomic level of molecule identification there is nothing but a huge amount of empty space, where nothing can collide. Remember what happened during the Philadelphia Experiment after the second world war? Control of the project was taken away from Tesla, and then the disaster happened.

So when we say, that we telepathically communicate with "entities" (people) from the 4th, 5th or 8th dimension, we mean to say we are speaking with people who look like us, are clothed like us (or better), speak like us, are intelligent like us (or more so) and feel emotion and passion as we do. Their societies are divided into male and female entities as ourselves, and they also raise children like we do (more conscientiously, though). Many of them are Avatars who can lower their molecular vibrational frequency to where they can "materialize" before our eyes, however in that state of being they are just as vulnerable to become hurt or injured as we are.

Now, where then does the duality aspect for dimensional planes from the 4th level and upward fit in? IT MANIFESTS ITSELF IN REGIONAL SEPARATION AS OPPOSED TO INTERMINGLING OF FORCES OF LIGHT AND DARKNESS! Planet Earth, seeing it resides in a "third" dimensional environment, houses representatives of both, the forces of Darkness as well as Light. If it were not so, we as individuals could really not be tested as to our loyalty toward the forces of Light. "Down" here it is a duty we owe to ourselves not to be overpowered by "evil" lest we manufacture a karmic backlash, from which it is hard to recover.

WE MUST LEARN OUR LESSONS WHILE IN THIS THIRD DIMENSIONAL INCARNATION, AND PROVE OURSELVES LOYAL TO THE LIGHT IN ORDER TO QUALIFY FOR LIFE EXPERIENCES OF HIGHER DIMENSIONAL MAKE-UP, WHERE THERE WILL BE NO IRRITATION FROM FORCES OF DARKNESS TRYING TO TRIP

US UP ALONG THE WAY!

Is it not the intent of the Bible to tell us, that "heaven" is a place where there will be no temptation? There we have our answer! In higher dimensions the forces of darkness have effectively been banished to remain isolated in their own regions of misery. This is what the "duality of dimensions" is all about. The division and separation of light and darkness is a reality without which the universe would not be complete!

One more reality should be mentioned before we move on: Our own consciousness has its own duality in the opposite to the reality we are functioning in at this time. If we have consciously elected to conduct our life in the realm of lighted essence and in harmony with universal law, then we literally surround ourselves with an impenetrable protective barrier from the other side of our own conscious ability: the dark side of ourselves. The mere fact that within our own conscious ability resides manifestation in the darkened realm should we elect to express ourselves in it, is proof of our own other "self" duality. Expression in it is misery while expression in the lighted realm is peace of mind where external circumstances we then create to make joy possible. The choice is ours to express ourselves in whatever essence we wish, and as we elect to conduct ourselves in the lighted essence, we banish our "other dark side" into the abyss where it belongs.

CHAPTER THREE

EARTH'S RECLAMATION – THE GREATER PURPOSE LITTLE UNDERSTOOD!

DEJA VU – HOUSE CLEANING ALL OVER AGAIN!

At this critical time in the history of Earth a "changing of the guards" must take place, where the "old guard," who have sadly failed in their duties as custodians of the nations, will be replaced by a new set of guardians. And as much as the former engaged themselves in perpetual creation of havoc among the people, so will the latter, the "new guard," busy themselves in bringing peace and order, knowledge and joy to the people. And let us not think for a moment these "new guardians" are intruders with no "property rights" to this planet! On the contrary! Eons ago the Brotherhoods of Light shared Earth with many intergalactic societies under the guidelines of universal rules of ethical conduct, until ruthless overlords forced their way in to drive into oblivion the forces of Light. The confrontation then was lost to energies of brutality, and their reign was one with much impunity over the people in general, as well as over many "Ambassadors of Light," who volunteered to incarnate among them for the purpose of bringing knowledge to people. And so in the course of time many of these enlightened ones lost their lives at the hand of the undisputed overlords, who would kill for the protection of their power. And thus we have seen the true godhood of our brothers ground into the dust at the feet of despotic overlords protecting their stranglehold over the nations.

And how does the Brotherhood of Light expect to win out on the issue of ultimate control of this planet, seeing that reclamation efforts of the past saw many of their kind fall victim to debauchery and murder? DISPENSATION OF TRUTH WILL RULE THE INFORMATION PIPELINE TO THE PEOPLE! THE PEOPLE WILL AT LAST BECOME ENLIGHTENED AGAIN AND BE SHOWN THE WAY OF "ESCAPE" FROM THE CLUTCHES OF A CRUEL SYSTEM, WHICH THE RULERS OF THIS WORLD HAD SET UP SO LONG AGO! CHRISTED ONES WILL RISE TO THE TOP OF WORLD POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC AFFAIRS AND WILL SET UP AN ECONOMIC METHODOLOGY, WHICH WILL NEGATE THE NEED FOR AUSPICES OF MONEY CURRENTLY IN USE. ACCESS TO BASIC NECESSITIES OF LIFE WILL BE DENIED TO NO ONE, AND THE MOTIVATING FACTORS FOR CRIMINAL ACTIVITY BECOME EFFECTIVELY REMOVED.

WHEN IN THE END THE TIME WILL COME FOR THE PEOPLE TO ESCAPE MASSIVE GLOBAL UPHEAVALS SIGNIFYING THE END OF THIS WORLD IN THE PHYSICAL, THEN THE "CHAFF" WILL BE SEPARATED FROM THE "WHEAT" AND A GLOBAL EVACUATION OF CHRISTED PEOPLE WILL BE CONDUCTED BY OUR EXTRATERRESTRIAL FRIENDS IN ORDER TO SPARE THEM THE TRAUMA OF BEING VIOLENTLY SWEEP AWAY INTO THE DEVA CHAN ALONGSIDE WITH THE WICKED. REMEMBER, THE RIGHTFUL OWNERS WILL MERELY TAKE BACK WHAT HAS ALWAYS BEEN THEIRS, AND THUS THE ERA OF UNRIGHTEOUS CONTROL OVER A STOLEN PLANET WILL END!

RECLAMATION CONFIRMED BY THE MASTERS

Not often do we share with others from the arsenal of personal messages from the Masters, but on the issue of their intent on reclaiming this planet, we shall make an exception. On August 3, 1994 Lord St. Germain and Hatonn gave us these words to reflect upon:

"Proceeding. We congratulate you and yours, Reni, for the steady proclamation of truth as it unfolds before your eyes. Before you both tuck in for the night, we only wish to allude to the fact, that both your services are indicative to the most radical thought of cause of we, your brethren. Adieu and do not be of the near time persuaded off our designated course of objectives. THIS WILL BE THE LAST TIME THIS PLANET OF YOURS WILL BE BROUGHT INTO NEUTRAL STATE OF BEING, PROTECTED FURTHER BY THE SOOTHSAYERS WITHIN THE FIRMAMENT OF SACRED TRUSTE. Sleep well. Conclusion ended as thusly. Lord GERMAIN and HATONN, exclusively at the helm."

And on Sunday, September 15, 1996, the archangel Gabriel alluded to the fact, that this planet at one time had seen peoples functioning under "universal laws," the laws of which are now to be "reinstated." Following is a partial quotation of his words:

*"...THIS (the power vested in the messenger of light) IS SIMPLY FOR THE RE-ENFORCEMENT AND REINSTATEMENT OF UNIVERSAL LAWS, WHICH ARE APPLICABLE TO THOSE AND ONLY THOSE WHO WORK WITH DECISIVENESS, COHERENCE AND APTITUDE, NOT TO MENTION OTHER VERACITIES (credentials) OF THE STATURE OF THE HOLY ONES!THIS SOON WILL BE FINISHED AND THAT TIME WILL BE COLLAPSED AND NO MORE WILL REIGN THE DISPLEASURE OF THE GODS UPON THIS EARTHEN PLANE!"

The event of "house cleaning" does not have to frighten anyone, for as long as people correct their priorities so as to firstly become informed and secondly not permit their hearts to remain attached to greed. WE COUNSEL EVERYONE TO NOT CAST BLAME UPON THE BROTHERHOOD FOR GLOBAL DESTRUCTION OF THIS PLANET, FOR NOT ONLY ARE THE BROTHER AND SISTERHOODS NOT DESERVING OF SUCH BLAME, BUT INDIVIDUALS IMBUED WITH BITTER THOUGHTS OF ACCUSATIONS WILL DISQUALIFY THEMSELVES FROM BECOMING BENEFICIARIES OF A HELPING HAND EXTENDED TOWARD THEM AT THE MOST CRUCIAL OF TIMES! LET US NOT BE TRAPPED BY OUR ATTITUDE WHICH SAYS "I LOVE MY ASSETS, MY PROPERTIES AND MY WEALTH, AND YOU SAY, IT IS ALL GOING TO BE WASHED AWAY IN AN INSTANT? I DON'T LIKE WHAT I HEAR AND THEREFORE WILL NOT BELIEVE IT!" Mistaken logic to the extreme! If we look upon evacuation as a means to escape the unavoidable, which is a happy event one should look forward to, then we will have made great strides of actually becoming participants in it.

CHAPTER FOUR

WORKING WITH THE BROTHERHOODS /S ABUNDANT JOY!

THE SISTERHOOD OF LIGHT – AN EQUAL PARTNER

And so finally this chapter leads us to the joy aspects of heeding counsel given by the Brother- and Sisterhoods of Light. But before we will go into the topic at hand, let me talk a little about the Sisterhoods.

The duality of the sexes is carried over into very high dimensional realms. Only near the top do they merge, as far as we understand. So whenever we speak of "the Brotherhood of Light," the Sisterhood belonging to that "Brotherhood" is not excluded. See, when people inherit the higher heavens (realms), the sexual identity of their choice will remain with them, for even in higher dimensional incarnations procreation continues and families are raised. Such is considered a great responsibility and handled with much dedication on the part of the parents.

However not all sisters belonging to the Brotherhoods busy themselves with raising families on a home planet of their choice, but rather prefer to assist their male counterparts as equal partners in raising civilizations of lower order to higher spiritual understanding. So these beautiful female entities then take to the ships just like their brothers do, and work with them side by side on the multi-task operation in guiding entire planetary civilizations like Earth's into new eras of higher thinking and reintegration into the family of galactic societies. When consciousnesses of women on Earth are raised to where direct communication becomes possible, we usually find the sisters from the stars contacting the sisters from Earth. Such however is not a hard and fast rule, but usually the case. And just like the men have formed many councils upon which they serve for periods of time, so have the women also done likewise. All this is done for the purpose guiding in wisdom soul entities of lower planes into a higher order.

SOME REWARDS ARE INSTANT

Everything the Brotherhood of Light does is for the benefit of mankind as a whole. So the message should finally sink in which says, that we have nothing to fear from them! We are the beneficiaries of their dedicated work and our friendship to them is their only reward. You see, they are very emotional beings and the expression of feelings is very intense. When they love, they love "hard" and when they despise, this writer would not want to be the target of their disapproval.

So the moment one soul entity on Earth begins to "open up" to them, because their message has reached that soul, and their words have been accepted, that in itself is indeed a joyous event on their starships, and all of our higher brethren and sisters participate in the joy of it. Such "recovery" of "lost" souls is the most desirable reward to themselves, and for the experience of such joy have they come here to serve so far away from their home planets. Now, should the feeling of joy also not be "mutual"? Indeed it is. The soul which has at last "awakened" and has allowed some subconscious remembering to occur of its own celestial roots, will also be blessed with a feeling of much satisfaction of finally having "found its way home", back into the company of its true friends and family. A deeply felt joy will overcome that person, and a great desire or learning more about the Brotherhoods of Light will dominate its actions.

This person will also feel, that its emotions of joy are not at all religiously motivated and therefore bear no artificial flavour, but are in response to having RECONNECTED WITH REALITY! Couple that feeling with a deep knowing of not having to perish in events signifying the end of the world, then a feeling of much gratitude will take hold and sweep it away to share it with whoever it can. Instant reward, indeed.

REMEMBER, EVERY GOOD THING HAS A PRICE!

The Law of Balance dictates that in this world nothing is for free, not even the blessings of association with the Brotherhoods of Light. It will cost you no tithing contributions nor precious amounts of your time otherwise spent in "fellowshipping" with the "saints," but possibly some trips to book stores carrying material from the Brotherhood or perhaps a few phone calls to friends, of whom you know of their interest in metaphysical material, although that particular terminology cannot adequately describe universal understanding. Whatever it may take to become more informed, is a small price to pay, we think.

You will become somewhat selective in the choice of your friends, for much conduct of people around you will become irritating, and you will wish mostly to be away from most of them. A feeling of living somewhat "aloof" from the idiosyncrasies of this world will sweep your soul into a sense of "resting from the nonsense," and you will shake your head at much of what is happening around you.

By that time you will have begun to consider it a small thing, when people around you begin to think you are "weird." It is okay to be different, as long as we are not stupid. And so true intelligence will shine out of your life and begin to illuminate with its light the dark deeds of ignorance around you. Never mind that kind of opposition, for wherever the light shines brightest, the dark energies will concoct equal efforts of snuffing out the light which is in you. This however they can do only if you permit them to do so. Do not rebel when this yin-yang effect hits you hardest, for it should merely be a reminder to you, that you are "on the right path."

YOUR LOYALTY BUILDS YOUR "BANK ACCOUNT"

No, we do not speak of money here, but of a credit of true value at the end of this, your incarnational experience. The loyalty we speak of here is that of "being good to yourself" by being faithful to principles and laws of the universe and its absolute justice. Loyalty to the Brotherhoods of Light will give you the determination to conduct yourself in compliance with all universal laws. This is something you owe to yourself, and such faithfulness will give you the "ticket" for boarding the star ships when the time comes. You will also feel the consolation of belonging to true friends, when your "time is up," for you have learned all your lessons well. Which man is not filled with joy, when he sees retirement age come around, and after having been faithful to his employer, still finds his financial reserves large enough to see him through comfortably for another fifty years? Remember, the purpose of life is the feeling of joy.

C H A P T E R F I V E

LET'S SEE, WHERE DO WE FIT IN?

OUR KINSHIP WITH EXTRATERRESTRIALS EXAMINED

In actuality everyone belonging to the human race is an extraterrestrial. The reason why we don't consider us as such is because we have lost the ability freely travel through the cosmos. Our own messing around with darkness (wickedness) has caused the Brotherhoods of Light to place us under "house arrest," so to speak, and so they confined man's manifestations of wickedness to Earth itself. As far as they are concerned we are quarantined and denied the freedom to freely interact with other societies in the cosmos by means of space travel, lest others elsewhere become infected by our own diseased conditions. It is indeed better to keep the cancers of our own corruption at home than to see it spread throughout other galactic systems.

However, regardless of how far we have fallen, WE ARE GENETICALLY OUR SPACE BROTHERS' AND SISTERS' RELATIVES, FOR THEY ONCE WERE WHERE WE ARE NOW, AND WELL DO THEY KNOW, THAT THEY CANNOT PROGRESS BEYOND THEIR PRESENT LEVEL OF ACHIEVEMENTS, UNLESS THEY PULL US WITH THEM! So if we wish to see them move on to bigger and higher missions, then let them become successful in their dealings with us! There is indeed no more effective way of helping ourselves, than to let them help us, whether assistance is administered by means of their published telepathic messages teaching us the secrets of the Universe, or whether we allow them to succeed in evacuating us off this planet into their ships before the tidal waves will sweep us all way, it matters not, WE WILL BE THE ONES TO PROFIT BY THEIR READINESS TO COME TO OUR ASSISTANCE! Are their actions then driven by selfish motives? No, they are dictated by LOVE and a desire to see us far removed from depths of misery.

WE HAVE A JOB TO DO!

First let us become informed. KNOWLEDGE IS POWER! As mentioned before, let us seek out the finest productions of literary art written by the Brotherhoods of Light, our most noble extraterrestrial friends, and let us learn from their wisdom and insights into ALL THAT IS. Here we can learn of matters beyond and within Earth realms. Over one hundred volumes of information have been produced through a different source, all downloaded from the commanders and Masters stationed on their magnificent ships. All this material has been put into print and is readily available for us to acquire. As we do this, we will cleanse ourselves from encumbrances of many preconceived false notions, and trading them in for plain truth should not be difficult, provided we will not let ego stand in the way.

To leaders of religious denominations we can only recommend to not let considerations of certain income losses or feelings of public embarrassment dictate their decision of whether or not to accept the Masters' counsel, for if they do, they will surely miss their (flying) "boat" into the skies when this Earth's crust will break up into red streams of flowing lava, and they "wished to God" they had dismissed the anti-gravity notion of floating into the "clouds." We still think a more solid space craft is better equipped to handle needs for anti-gravity movement. Time is indeed short to become educated on these matters, for the event of global crustal break-up will occur only a few years hence, and may not fail to occur within the anticipated lifetime of many walking this planet today.

Let us also not fall into the trap of "fighting back" the forces of corruption, for they are so solidly entrenched in governing society, that feeble pockets of resistance will be quickly extinguished by the power of their military and police might. We do not need any more martyrs of this world's iniquitous ruling powers! We need our people alive in order to be able to rescue them! Corpses will not be evacuated into the ships, therefore do not present a target for the enemy to destroy! Become invisible and get ready to leave this planet! Do not fight anybody's war or ambitions, no matter how "righteous" the cause may be! Even the brotherhood's goal of reclaiming this planet for the noble seed of the future will not require arms, explosives, court battles or any such thing! Having said this we do not expect you to betray your deepest heartfelt sentiments of patriotism, however, please put your actions into proper perspective with your knowledge of universal reality. If you do that, you will avoid the pitfalls of fanaticism. Feeding the people the truth of the ages will accomplish all that is necessary for a successful conclusion of this age! *Let wisdom guide all your actions and keep yourself aloof of popular contentious issues!!

Never before in the known history of mankind have we seen a greater opportunity for so many people to become reunited with their celestial Brotherhood ALL AT ONCE! Many negative karmic responses can instantaneously be dealt with IN THIS INCARNATION, provided we will not "miss our (flying) boat" this time around, and thus the continuation of our progression will have been guaranteed. The great failure of the rebellious ones will not be so much their burial under thousands of feet of sediment, but rather their own digression into another series of countless incarnations for the purpose of repeating many learned and unlearned lessons under the enticing influence of dark forces, until another equinox in planetary history will offer them a chance to not "miss their boat" next time. Good bye!

EPILOGUE

And one more time in conclusion we will kindly share with you, our precious readers, some words of counsel given to us from Commander Melix on August 14th, 1996, words as delivered by the Mancharians:

"Place yourselves away from the contempt of the public at large toward those horrendous lies given through archival attempts of the naughty ones, for when these truths are given out around the globe and perhaps other globes as well, you are in for the shock of your lives! "BEREFT THEN WILL BE THE STRUCTURES OF GOLD AND PLATINUM BUILDINGS MEANT FOR THE SELECTION OF THE CHILDREN OF GOD, FOR THEY UNWITTINGLY PLACE THEMSELVES THROUGH MEMORANDUM OF DIALOGUE OF THE DEVILS INTO A PARTITION OF ULTRA WAVES COMING FROM THEIR STRICKEN POLICY OF BREAKING INTO THE UNIVERSE AND OUT OF THE HEATED CONDITION OF THE LIMELIGHT OF CHRISTIAN JURISDICTION!"

"Out front will be displayed in the time throughout the many centuries of conscientious craft of the enlightened ones such as yourselves, but beware and we do warn ye all, DO NOT LET THEY ONES SUCH AS THE RABID ONES OF THE RELIGIOUS ESTABLISHMENT GET TOO NEAR UNTO YOU ONE'S PALATABLE BONES! JUST DO AS WE DO: BECOME THE INVISIBLE TARGET TO ALL AND YOU WILL BE READY FOR ALL THOSE WHO SELDOM EVER GOT TO VISIT THE LIKES OF THE ENTITIES FROM SPACE, NAMELY HERE YE AND SHE AND HE! GOODNESS AND GLORY MAY SURROUND THE TWAIN OF YE FREELY!"

"We have all so much to look forward to, and in such a short time the curtains will fall on act four and display to the continents all that has seldom been witnessed for generations through the true indoctrination of the gemstone of the nations: THE SENTANA-RIES's ARE STAYING IN AMERICA! ALL GLORY TO YE THROUGHOUT THE NATIONS, AND GREETINGS EXTENDED FROM SANANDA, THE LORD, WHO BROUGHT MUCH OF THIS INTO PLACE FOR THE EXTENSION OF HEIGHTENED CONSCIOUS ENDEAVOUR TOWARD THE FIXATION OF LIFE EVERLASTING TOWARD THE PEOPLE AND PATRONS OF THE EARTHEN PLANE!! Good night."

BEYOND RELIGION: ABUNDANT JOY! (PART TWO)

AND AS THE LIGHT OF TRUTH SHINES FORTH INTO THE HEARTS OF MAN,
SO WILL RELIGIOUS DECEPTION
FADE INTO ITS OWN ABYSS, AND TRUTH WILL SIGNIFY WITH ITS RADIANCE
THE RELEASE OF ALL ITS CAPTIVES
INTO THE FRIENDLY FOLD OF THE BROTHERHOODS OF LIGHT!

Money is the root of all evil.
Evil is everywhere because the system of money is everywhere.
Man is controlled by lack of money
Which keeps him in poverty, indignity, stress, chaos and crime.
We call it "hell" – the opposite of paradise.

The people want their lost paradise back
But can't have it where money keeps them in slavery.
And so the people decided that money must go
That paradise may come!

And with their feet they walked and their hands they laboured
And their voices they shouted and their will they insisted
And with the might of their souls they overturned the tables of the money changers!

That was the day when paradise came back to give them joy!
