THE FEDERATION OF FREE PLANETS

By Reni Sentana-Ries, Grande World Counselor

Attention: To all Military Generals of this Planet!

I believe that between Saddam's own claim of being back as Nebuchadnezzar's reincarnation and our sympathetic articles in defense of him, combined with our promise to lift Osama, the reincarnation of Immanuel, onto the Throne of Russia, the ruling establishment of Washington must have rediscovered the prophetic validity of Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and in their madness sought an excuse before the public to kill both men by assailing their nations in order to prevent his prophecy from materializing. And so we came to witness the destruction of impoverished Afghanistan and that of a potentially prosperous Iraq. It is not so much that they are afraid of these two men; they are afraid however, of the rock hitting the King's statute at its feet of iron and clay with all its implications of filling the earth and the loss of their power. And so the downing of the two towers in New York, along with pinning the blame for it on the innocent, gave them that excuse. Iraq then was falsely accused of harboring weapons of mass destruction, providing the excuse before the American public to attack Iraq and kill Saddam. The attack on the Pentagon building was to camouflage the origin of the attack on the towers.

We were informed by the starship commanders of the Federation that should Washington succeed to kill Osama, they would then destroy the entire earth. This left me without choice but to take command of the U.S. Military in order to prevent this murder from happening, which would trigger the destruction of this planet together with its people on it. My command of the U.S. military would then also block Nebuchadnezzar's prophetic dream from being foiled by elements in Washington who understand prophecy, but unfortunately have run the affairs there until today in a debauched manner. While they may understand simple prophecy, they however do not understand the consequences to the world and themselves for a successful foiling of true prophecy.

In order for the rock to do its work of filling the earth, earth must be reintegrated into the FEDERATION OF FREE PLANETS. Yet only a reclamation of its people can make this possible as they regain their long lost paradise. What follows is the pathway leading to that outcome.

People, never in thousands of years have you come closer to achieving your exaltation into higher worlds of glorious existing than today, as you look upon the contents of this site. It operates to provide guidance and instructions to your leaders and to you, the people, who must insist that all demands on them contained herein are executed in military precision. Your lives and your future in bliss depend on it!

- This site was developed and completed while I was held at the Ft. Saskatchewan prison in Alberta, Canada, in 2006 AD.

The nonsense is over! From now on we will be doing repair work to the nations! I am Reni Sentana-Ries, your Grande World Counselor and one of earth's representatives of the FEDERATION OF FREE PLANETS. My purpose for being here at this time and for being in this position is to be your leader in carefully guiding you towards and through the most precarious time you have ever seen. Much of it will not be easy, for earth is beginning to have convulsions from abuse of the past. But we are here now to let you have a taste of what you never had a taste of before: PARADISE. This is essential for you to be emotionally prepared to enter into a completely new environment with your bodies intact - an environment you have never seen before. Since the level of conduct in that new environment into which you will be transported is significantly above that in which you are living now, it is mandatory that you taste paradise, for otherwise you will not go there. The great misconception religion has given you so far is to believe that paradise is what you enter into when you die. Not so! Paradise is what you build where you are, otherwise you cannot have it. You will stagger like a drunkard back and forth, fall over on your face, only to get up and stagger some more, I'm speaking of successive incarnations here, if you get my meaning. Don't think for one minute that you have not had a life stream on this earth before. Probably many, you just can't remember, and you are now at this moment here again to learn from us that, which you failed in the past to learn, that is, to build your paradise in order to qualify for entry into the next level of your training on a higher plane, and move on in the experiencing of joy for being alive, as you owe it to yourselves.

I will assist you in it, and so, what this website will do is, it will contain an agenda, sort of a things-to-do list with items for you, your leaders, and your Generals to implement in order to straighten out the mess you are in, and in that manner we will show you how to solve your problems. In say "we", for I am not alone in this. I have by my side my wife Seila who has gifts going beyond those of my own. We also draw from our connection to the Commanders of the Federation of Free Planets. Certain books in our possession we will publish for you to learn from, others we may not. Religiously we make no claims except to say that Daniel interpreted King Nebuchadnezzar's dream correctly in which President Saddam Hussein sees himself at both ends of the time scale. I also must state here to the dishonor of so-called Christian leaders of the United States that the insane persecution on Osama bin Laden is a replica of what he went through 2000 years ago. And therefore I have decided to honour my friend Osama by making him the heir to my Throne out of which I got bounced in the days of the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution. And that is all you inquirers need to know at this time, who seek a religious connection in all this. We are not here to fulfill your doctrinal misconceptions but to instill upon you our assertion that the time has come for your reclamation, and that is enough.

I will also go into an agreement with hopefully all governments of this planet to provide for their people an accurate translation of this site into the languages their people speak in order that no one be left out of learning all matters essential for the progression of their souls. This may also be the case for China for as long as the Chinese people have not identified their own guide more familiar with their customs and traditions than I am.

I am the Chief Editor of this site. I write on any topic I wish. Any book we publish will be available on this site in .pdf format for free. Those of you who wish to have a copy from a publisher may acquire one from a book store. Our effort is not for gain but for making information available to you that you have not been aware of before. We also have no secrets, for anything we share with Government you also will know about from this site, and in this manner we shall restore accountability of Government back to you, the people. Should this site grow to become massive, then all will remain accessible to you by a set of links.

Vital to the stability and performance of the economic order of paradise is the establishment of a SECURITY PANEL in each country. Guidance for the initial set-up of these Panels you have under the link called "SECURITY PANEL." Be not alarmed when you find that the introduction of this panel will alter your governmental structure as well as shift areas of jurisdiction. The powers assigned to this panel will only affect your present or future position of either regular or substantial public trust if in their unanimous opinion you as leader misuse the power of your office detrimental to the interests of the people and in contravention to the principles of a paradisiacal society. What these principles are you will learn from this site.

“Their victory is a total disaster! If we kill him the people will know who did it and come after us, and his awful site will fuel their passions. If we let him live his site will come down, but he will rise, endowed with power to shield us from the wrath of the nations. Brethren, the writing is on the wall. Our time is up. The choice is ours: To fight this thing and die, or duck our heads, weather this storm and live. Methinks the latter is our better choice. What happens then time will tell. If this planet will hold out long enough, there may come a window for us to seize power again after the traditions of old. But remember, Brethren, for that day to come we must be alive!”

THE SECURITY PANEL

1. Internal Structure

- a) The national SECURITY PANEL consists of 12 men and 12 women per nation.
- b) The qualifications of these members are given under the link called "Qualifications."
- c) All members are equal including their chairman or chairwoman.
- d) The panel regenerates from within, meaning each new member is chosen by themselves, using identical qualifications as described under "Qualifications" from the public in the event of a member's death, incapacitation, or expulsion for inability to be of one mind with all. The 12x12 ratio must always be maintained.
- e) During the meetings, being seated around a round large table or a set of curved tables placed side by side into a large ring, each male member must be flanked by two female and vice versa. They must be seated alternatively.
- f) Chairman rotation is not obligatory.

2. Powers of the SECURITY PANEL

All powers of this Panel pertain to security only. All decisions by the SECURITY PANEL must be unanimous. The Panel's powers are:

- a) To direct all security operations conducted by the wing of the armed national police force in charge of security only. Therefore the security wing of the armed police force is not accountable to the national government or its president, but to the SECURITY PANEL.

- b) The SECURITY PANEL directs and oversees all operations of the national military force except that of the USA and temporarily Russia. The arrangement for Russia will be finalized when matters of Czarist royalty have been concluded there.
- c) The SECURITY PANEL has power to remove out of office any official holding either substantial or regular public trust who acts in contradiction to the spirit of oneness by undermining the paradisiacal economic environment of the people or is disruptive in conduct to the peace among people.
- d) The SECURITY PANEL appoints all officials into offices as holders of substantial public trust. Their selections are for life until they choose to step out of office at their own discretion or become incapacitated in the opinion of the Panel. See under “Interpretations” to identity holders of the office of substantial public trust.
- e) The SECURITY PANEL has no power to remove a king, a queen, a czar, or a czarina out of office. Where the actions of royalty run counter to the interests of the people, the SECURITY PANEL or the Grande World Counselor only have power to intervene in those actions by virtue of overruling those royalty decrees which they (the Panel members) deem detrimental to harmony among the people.

3. Accountability of the SECURITY PANEL

Unlike any other person holding public office, the 24 members of the national SECURITY PANEL are accountable to the High Council of the Federation of Free Planets. That being the case, I have no power to overrule a decision made by the Panel reached in oneness consensus, which eliminates the possibility of an appeal to myself for any of their decisions.

4. Identification of the SECURITY PANEL members

Each member of the SECURITY PANEL is given a badge of authority and an identifying feature on their clothing. The replacement of persons must accompany a document signed by all members stating reasons for dismissal from public office and be delivered by no fewer than three SECURITY PANEL members, showing their badges and being accompanied by one or more armed security police officers. No removal of persons from office will be accompanied by charges, trials or punishment, and no Panel's decision is subject to an appeal.

5. Security arrangements for large nation states including royal empires

It is impossible for one SECURITY PANEL alone to handle all security matters occurring in large nation states. In those cases the jurisdictions assigned to the Panel can be divided by geographic area and function.

a) Dividing a national SECURITY PANEL in geographic areas of jurisdiction.

The Panel has the power to divide the nation's land mass into two halves of approximately equal size using provincial or state boundaries. One half it retains for itself and the other half is then assigned to a newly created Panel appointed by themselves, where each new member is subjected to the screening process under "Qualifications". Should the two newly created areas still be too large to manage, then a further division of geographic area, using the same procedure, becomes necessary. No Panel has the right to divide the nation or a zone up into more than two geographic areas at a time. All such decisions by the Panel must be unanimous.

b) Dividing a national SECURITY PANEL by function.

The moment a nation state or royal empire is out of necessity compelled to begin dividing its land mass into 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 or more zones, it becomes necessary for the very first established SECURITY PANEL to also divide its function. The two functions are:

- (1) to direct the operations of the armed wing of the security police force, and direct the military.
- (2) To assign qualified persons into offices of substantial public trust, and to remove persons holding either substantial or regular public trust where removal is warranted.

In that case, upon the first division of a nation state into two zones, the fallout from that division will result in three SECURITY PANELS of 24 members each. Two Panels would look after jurisdiction (2) described as a “function” and one Panel would focus its attention unencumbered by other responsibilities on jurisdiction (1), also described as a “function”.

All royalty personages have access to any SECURITY PANEL that has jurisdiction under (1) in the capacity as advisors in matters of police and military security. Should the SECURITY PANEL disagree, the petition or request by royalty is quashed until the issue raised by royalty becomes evident to the members as a matter qualifying for implementation. No official holding an office of substantial public trust has the right of access to any national SECURITY PANEL except for the solicitation of advice.

6. The Power of Dissolution

Just as a SECURITY PANEL has the power to divide its jurisdictions in half by creating new Panels, so does it have the power to dissolve itself where the workload no longer justifies its existence. This however must only be done in agreement with another Panel which is willing to take over the additional work load left behind by the outgoing one. When the number of SECURITY PANELS is back down to one per nation, no further dissolution is allowed.

7. Redundancy of National Elections

The presence of a national SECURITY PANEL and its powers makes national, provincial, state & civic elections unnecessary as persons are being selected into positions of substantial public trust.

8. Tools of the SECURITY PANEL

ALL SECURITY PANEL members are expected to keep themselves informed of what is going on in the country. Their resources are technically unlimited:

- a) information gleaned by intelligence agencies.
- b) Information gleaned by the armed security police force.
- c) Radio, television, newsprint information and books, i.e. "Secret Societies," etc.
- d) complaints filed by the public
- e) regular contact with officials chosen by the Panel.
- f) regular contact with officials holding regular public trust.
- g) the internet,

No Panel member is to be kept on a "leash" in the responsible execution of his or her duty. Unlimited travel must be allowed. No person or agency has the right to withhold information demanded by a SECURITY PANEL member.

All members of any Panel have the right to unlimited communication with any other panel member anywhere in the world. Internal communication among members via internet is encouraged. All members have the right to armed guards for protection if they feel that is necessary.

9. Conflict Resolution

In the event of a deadlock at any SECURITY PANEL, the issue can be brought before myself for conflict resolution. This move must not be considered a threat to Panel members holding a dissenting voice. A person's conscience we respect.

We discern between a natural difference of opinion and the abandonment of a spirit of oneness.

No member is obligated to go against his or her best discernment of what is right or wrong when a certain path of action is under consideration.

Conflict resolution can also be attained through the liberty each Panel member has to consult with any other Panel or member anywhere in the world. There will be no restriction on flow of information from one Panel to another. No Panel is an island all by itself. No mission or initiative any member embarks on will be considered a waste of time or effort. It will be looked upon as a "labour of love" in the best interest of the people.

10. Limitations to the Power of a National SECURITY PANEL

- a) No surveillance will be permitted within the confines of a private home. Surveillance of telephone calls (wireless or land) will not be considered an encroachment on privacy to persons placed under it, even if made from a private home.
- b) No SECURITY PANEL may dictate any form of punishment or restrictions on individuals caught in the dragnet of surveillance. A Panel's power of removing persons out of offices of public trust is not considered a form of punishment.
- c) No Panel has authority outside of its own designated zone of jurisdiction. It may not interfere with decisions made by officials holding offices of substantial public trust except give notification of its disagreement. Its only power of interference is the potential removal of those officials if it deems it necessary. Any Panel may pass on advice to a leader if asked to do so, however the advice must be based on the Panels' unanimity.

11. The SECURITY PANEL vis-à-vis the Armed Security Wing of the National Police Force.

- a) The Panel issues mandate and guidelines for all aspects of security surveillance to the police force and their agents, including directives to the bearing of arms or that of non-lethal weapons.
- b) The Panel will select leading officers for only one level into the hierarchy of the security police as well as that of the regular police force in accordance with requirements as outlined under “Qualifications.”
- c) Police personnel below the first level of hierarchy will be selected under “Qualifications” requirement by the lead officer who was selected by the Panel.
- d) The Security Police Force are given the highest state-of-art surveillance equipment and training, and has the right of choice to give notice of surveillance on individuals and groups or not. This freedom is for the purpose of fairness to persons under surveillance balanced with a public’s right to effective surveillance.
- e) Individuals caught in an attempt of undermining the economic order of paradise by means of plotting in secrecy and found in organizing armed insurrection against the new order must be handed over into military custody where I will consult with any generals, and we will then decide on all matters of justice for them.

12. The SECURITY PANEL vis-à-vis the Military

- a) No general is under obligation to obtain permission to use deadly force when attacked by surprise, or if he has reliable information leading them to pockets of armed revolt against the order of paradise. The latter requires a detailed report back to the SECURITY PANEL, and a copy of the report must go to myself.
- b) The Panel will assess military strength requirements and make adjustments as required.

- c) The Panel will decide on the type of weapons eligible for deployment.
- d) The Panel will order the dismantling or destruction of all mini nukes, A-bombs, H-bombs, chemical weapons, biological weapons, depleted uranium ammunitions and bombs, daisy cutter bombs, cluster bombs, and land mines as soon as global consensus among all SECURITY PANELS world wide has been obtained. The dismantling of this hardware will occur simultaneously.

13. Initial Assignment from the SECURITY PANEL

In all likelihood a SECURITY PANEL's main work load will consist of guiding and directing the affairs of the armed wing of the national police force in charge of security and surveillance. Initially I want the SECURITY PANEL to instruct surveillance on

- a) all known and unknown members of secret or semi-secret organizations, i.e. the Illuminati, the Club of Rome, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Scull and Bones, all "fellows" of elitist universities, the Freemasons, the Trilateral Commission, all supporters of globalization and privatization, and Federal Reserve members. Any secret or semi-secret group not mentioned must be included. The insiders of the Bilderbergs I want arrested. The Elders of Zion I want hunted as Osama is.
- b) all owners of industry
- c) all owners of the media
- d) all owners of major publishing houses, including publishers of school text books.
- e) All bankers and bank presidents, national or international. Initially I want them arrested.
- f) All politicians which at one time held an office of substantial public trust. Those which I can identify as friendly to our cause will be exempted.

- g) For now I want no surveillance on Mr. Kissinger. That being the case I want to see him placed under armed guard.
  - h) The former Secretary of Defense and World Bank President Mr. McNamara I want arrested.
  - i) All neo-cons of the United States.
- The SECURITY PANEL is at liberty to expand on this list as it sees fit.

To the People of Iraq

Iraqis, I AM YOUR GOVERNOR! I am Reni Sentana-Ries, a friend of Saddam Hussein, who in 1998 tried to teach me to walk like a king, gave up, and finally said: "You are not a king, you are a leader!" I just could not match his gait.

In Iraq I want all guns to fall silent and all bombing and sectarian torturing and killing to stop. I WANT TO HEAR A PIN DROP IN IRAQ!! From here on out the only ones dying in Iraq shall be those on their natural way back into the womb of where they came from. I cannot build a nation on the foundation of endless revenge killings for wrongs of the past. Saddam has learned his lesson from the past and will not repeat those mistakes when I will reinstate him back to you, not as President, but as your King and King of the Arab Nation! However this I will not do unless I give back to him a country of discipline and order, not chaos! In the meantime Saddam remains under my protection and care, and I want to remind you, the Iraqi people, when on sentencing day he said: "God is greater than the occupiers!" he did not lie to you, for his faith in your reclamation was unshakable.

Now, put your weapons away, stop your thoughts of revenge, forgive each other, be kind to your neighbour and stranger, forget your religious affiliations and class hatred. Paradise will never come to you for as long as you cannot forgive each other nor Saddam and his former Government! Never in a million years would I consider giving Saddam back to you if he were not a changed man from his former self. Therefore conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of receiving a King for your next leader, who has nothing but the noblest thoughts about your spiritual, emotional, and economic welfare in mind, and I assure you, Shiites and Kurdish people are not excluded from his noble thoughts. Saddam will leave your country when the Americans are pulling out. In America he will remain under our care until order in your nation has returned under my direction and governorship. I will attempt to work with government officials who are in place at this time. Therefore the Sunnis must not attempt to depose the current leaders, and neither must the Shiites feel to lord over the Sunnies. Both must learn to respect each other and accept each other in the common cause of setting up Iraq as an example of a perfect paradise to all other nations. The job I as your Governor of Iraq will commence, your King Saddam will complete in utter perfection!

So now, people of Iraq, go home and read these words out aloud to your children, and begin to be silent in your hearts, for silence will help you come to your senses, and be joyous where the words I speak to you resonate in your souls!

Your Governor Reni!

STRUCTURAL CHANGES TO GOVERNMENTS

1. The selection of persons into offices of substantial public trust by the SECURITY PANEL makes general elections obsolete. National, provincial and state governors, presidents and prime ministers, premiers and mayors of cities and towns above 24,000 residents must all be appointed by the SECURITY PANEL. Their teams or cabinets are chosen by themselves who are considered officials holding offices of substantial public trust. All presidents, prime ministers, premiers, governors and mayors are accountable to myself, the holder of the Office as Grande World Counselor. When the time comes and I phase out of your sight, my Office goes with me and all holders of offices of substantial public trust will from that day forth be accountable to the SECURITY PANEL.
2. All houses of elected or appointed members like the Congress, Senate, Duma or Bundestag will be disbanded and be replaced by two or more appointed representatives from each region, who have gone through the screening process as explained under "Qualifications", and who then may become a pool of resource for appointments by the appointed head of state. His or her drain from this resource pool as appointed officials will make it necessary to replace those regional individuals by new appointments for those houses, so that the number of regional members is always proportional to the number of regions in the country.
3. With regard to the justice system I say: in a paradisiacal environment it will be impossible for the justice system to retain its present shape. Many laws will become redundant , eliminating avenues for violation. I suggest for society to assign wise, fair, and honorable men and women into positions of trust as judges in cases where disputes still occur. Set up a council for the purpose of restructuring the justice system to adjust to the new conditions. I also fail to see the need for continued forced incarceration except in cases of violence causing bodily harm or property damage. Find a fair system where victimizers are given the opportunity to make restitution for harm or damage done. Rulings must be consistent with the public's right to safety. Let verdicts cease to bear the nature of punishment and assume the - character of rehabilitation, which includes the seeking of relief for a person's troubled mind. The temporary loss of certain rights (luxury, wealth, travel, transportation, etc.) would be acceptable where public safety is not at risk.

4. Constitutions. A) Constitutions define structure and powers of governments and their respective areas of jurisdiction. B) I suggest the formation of a panel of enlightened men and women to re-write the constitution reflecting the preferred structure of Government consistent with my own requirements of a paradisiacal system. National or ethnic uniqueness in a constitutional structure is no violation of the principle need for oneness among all human beings. The model presented here under 2. is one of perhaps many options.
  5. Human Rights. A) The Declaration of Universal Human Rights of the United Nations is a good starting point for a review of fundamental rights for all under a paradisiacal economic system. B) Similar to 4. (b).
  6. Legal Rights. A) The application of fundamental justice equally granted to all and blended with all human rights and constitutions should leave no human being behind with a feeling of having been dealt with unfairly by a reformed system of justice. Should you feel the need for putting legal rights into the framework of a written bill, then feel free to do so. In that case follow the advice as given under 4 (b) with regard to legal rights. B) All persons selected under 4., 5. and 6. must pass the screening process under the link "Qualifications."

(un.htm)

THE UNITED NATIONS

I want Secretary General of the United Nations Mr. Kofi Annan to remain in his office for life unless he chooses to step down at his own volition.

This gentlemen has earned my respect for his wisdom with which he handled the most conflicting interests among nations and political philosophies any man would ever wish to mediate in. I could not have matched his longsuffering patience with the unruly ones over there.

We can now proceed to dismantle the Security Council, for from here on out it is the enlightened ones who will guarantee the security of the nations.

The General Assembly however has enormous potential for displaying unity among its member states, and therefore it may remain intact. Its members must meet the requirements as laid out under "Qualifications."

Many auxiliary organizations of the U.N. will probably become redundant. Mr. Annan and I will discuss all issues around a necessary restructuring of the United Nations, and as soon as we have reached a consensus you will hear about it.

QUALIFICATIONS

ETIQUETTE

1. I will only dress casual, not in a suit and tie.
2. I will bow to the people who cheer and also wave to them occasionally.
3. On official visits I will bow towards my hosts and give them a handshake for a greeting.
4. On departure I will do as in 3, and after having walked up – say – to the door of an airplane, turn around and wave back at my hosts one final time.
5. On official dinners all of us will remain standing by our chairs until the host arrives and says: “You may now all be seated.” Then the chatter may begin which is customary around luncheon or dinner tables. There is no requirement for silence. Anyone however may request it if he or she may wish to address all that are there after having gained permission to do so from the host.
6. There are no restrictions on small talk anywhere or at any time unless during official meetings.
7. I do not wish for the media to charge at me with their microphones. Cameramen must stand back at least 8 to 10 feet. There will be question-and-answer sessions with the media, but they must be prearranged with myself for time and location, and be conducted orderly.
8. I will not ignore honor guards. Towards them I will bow once on either side.
9. I do not wish “red carpet” receptions.
10. I also do not wish to be given gifts while on official visits. Flowers for my wife Seila will be accepted graciously.
11. The requirement for women to be veiled in my presence does not exist, for I feel it is not necessary.
12. In public you may address me in any of the following ways: “Mr. Sentana-Ries”, or “Counselor”, or “Commander”, or

How Does Forgiveness Really Work?

Thursday, November 2, 2006

It may have come as a surprise to you when, contrary to fundamental doctrines of commercial religion, I rejected the concept of blood for sin. How this falsehood got injected into the Law of Moses is to me almost beyond belief and comprehension. I will however attempt to give you an answer which just may prove to be able to withstand the test of time.

The dividing line between good and evil can at any plane of evolution become blurred and be devoid of clear demarcation, and so I surmise some “Lords” or “gods” from other star systems got temporarily carried away with a false notion of self-aggrandizement, irrespective of the cost to other life forms of creation. I am certain they also were warned of the consequences of their actions and chose to ignore them. As time went by, and as from their exalted position in the skies they observed the horrible tragedies they had unleashed on mankind as well as the animal world, remorse came and a plan for their own recovery as well as the recovery of those born into this world by the womb of mothers was developed. This plan would see themselves reclaimed who are the gods of the past, the present and the future, together with humanity they had severely bruised.

The key to that reclamation is forgiveness, where we forgive them, they forgive us, they also forgive each other, and we forgive each other. And here, contrary to traditional thinking, transgression of the laws of universal ethics is not being buried under the rubble of past history, but rather exposed for all to see. That is necessary in order for healing of old wounds to begin. Those among us with sufficient humility to admit our past mistakes can then move on to greater heights of glory, while others without that inner humility stunt their evolution and become tormented by being compelled to exist in a world where the righteous call the shots. Eventually the wicked will leave and build their own kingdoms of hellish existence, and at that point the boundaries between good and evil, “heaven” and “hell”, become more distinct. The end result of that process is balance, where each entity then has elected to exist in a world he or she has created by the hand of his or her own actions and choices; and at that point we can speak of “good” not being able to exist without “evil”, “heaven” cannot be without “hell”, there cannot be light unless there is darkness, and there cannot be joy unless there is also sadness. And in this manner the universe never loses its balance.

Coming back to the law of forgiveness I promised to review, let me give you an example: Two days ago at night a young tall inmate held the door open leading to another building in this prison complex for medication. He and I were the last to pass through the door, when suddenly I hear him say: “You first, Jew hater!” I was stunned and shook my head, and as we walked down the concrete pathway towards the other building, I turned around and said to him: “Don’t you ever call me that again!” When the other inmates heard those words, one of them wanted to know what the issue was and so I explained what happened. He then began rebuking this young man, with others joining in, until we all arrived at the dispensary. And there to my surprise the young man turned around facing me and said: “I apologize for having called you that!”, to which I replied: “Your apology is accepted. The case is closed.”

I did not ask him to catch a pigeon outside, slit its throat, drain its blood, and pass it to me in a dish. Neither did I say to him: “Be comforted, my friend. Two thousand years ago there lived a man on earth. He was the Son of God. You are lucky that he was crucified and shed his blood for you, for otherwise I could not say to you: The case is closed!”

You see, the universe does not function on the basis of such barbaric concepts of justice as religion keeps presenting it to you! From these simple statements I want you to learn, so that you also can say of yourself what I have said of myself. From now on I want all of you to be “sapphires to the pyramid of man’s evolution.” Six and a half billion of you! Only then will I consider my job done properly, barring the application of your free agency to deny yourself that distinction. You ask: “Who are you to say all these things?” I say: “I am your brother who has become fed up with how this world is being run! We’ll now make it a paradise together!”

De–franchising Government, Church, and Family out of Marriage

October 31, 2006

I also call it the “de–institutionalizing” of marriage. It is not the role of Government nor that of a church to control the process of marriage between two consenting partners of the opposite sex, and neither is marriage a matter of choice parents should make on behalf of their own adult children. I ask, are parents prepared to become hated for the rest of their lives by any of their own children for having forced upon them a relationship which gave them a miserable life? I think not. So then, what is the problem of “letting go”, parents? It is better for the son or daughter to blame themselves for a marital miscalculation than to have that type of accusation land on a parent’s doorstep.

As it stands today, both, Government and Church keep a union of two people enforced who have outlived their personal relationship to each other, a relationship which can only be dissolved with a lot of government “red tape” and a stigma of guilt. We should begin to recognize here that some couples have simply completed the purpose of their union as part of their life experience in this incarnation and just want to move on with the remainder of their lives. And here people must be allowed access to continual enrichment of their lives in the form of positive life experiences. A locked–up marriage union resulting in unhappiness, agony or even despair is not compatible with the nature of a paradisiacal environment. Celibacy during the courtship period is commendable. For a couple to go beyond that stage is a virtual declaration of being married. Duration of such relationships cannot be determined by government, the law, the church, nor family. At times two people have not exhausted their potential of making each other happy for incarnations. And conversely, we find marriages which are very brief before a feeling sets in which tells them both that they have completed the purpose of their union. All these relationships must not be dictated upon by outside forces, for they are by nature governed by powerful personal needs and instincts.

In polygamy a man cannot take rights for himself that woman also does not have. Polygamy is socially undesirable as it is lacking in balance. And any woman or man in such a relationship has the right to end it. Why? Because equality between man and woman is universal and absolute!

What I have spoken on marriage so far is only revolting to those who do not wish to see their outmoded religious concepts threatened which call for CONTROL of a society, believing, that unless constraints are placed in the lives of two young people in love, the world as they see it will collapse right down around their heads. And perhaps it should! For the things I speak about are derived from a knowledge of how paradise works in all its liberties of purity, detached from a concept or "sin" where indeed there is none. Archaic laws of the past created this concept upon their violation, but as we discover their redundancy, knowing their absence encroaches in no way upon order and harmony of paradise itself, then why would we wish to hang on to laws which in the past have impeded mankind's happiness by lending marriage a stigma of "sin" in cases where it ought to end out of pure necessity? Do not expect me to compromise on principle as it pertains to paradise just because some of you do not wish the foundation of your traditions knocked, traditions which you inherited from your forefathers of the past, who lived in nothing more elevated of a world than the one you find yourself in today! I could be of no assistance to you if I did not attempt to break your misconceptions down which until now held you captive in a world of misery.

Look into your own marriage! Do you find a paradise in there? Look into the marriage of your children as you have them bound together at your own discretion! Are they happy for the choice you made for them? If their happiness is no greater than a chance of striking a 6/49 hit after you compelled them into their union, then your tradition has been a miserable failure.

You may counter: “But what about children out of a marriage which is falling apart?” I say, it is always good to give young children a feeling of parental stability, but not at the expense of parental happiness. Remember, the children from here on out will be growing up in a somewhat paradisiacal environment, where their personal security will never be at stake should Mom or Dad decide to go their separate ways. Parting here does not necessarily mean a separation in anger. More likely a feeling of continued friendship will remain where children then can freely associate with either of their genetic parents. I am not saying that separation will never be a hard blow for one or the other, but what I am saying is that the absence of a stigma of “sin” in the event of a separation will certainly soften that blow in the long run. The world we are building now is not one of ultimate perfection yet, but is one step closer to taking us there.

On Evacuation

Thursday, November 16, 2006

Contrary to former “holy writings” of which nearly all need to be discarded, my work is virtually empty of the word “love.” Hardly anywhere have I made it a precondition to anything I’ve ever asked you to do. And in many ways it isn’t. “Salvation” you need to “work out” for yourselves. It is hard work and has little to do with love. My portion in it I did not do out of love. I did it for not wanting to miss my (flying) “boat.” I love myself too much to want to do such a betrayal to my soul. That may sound selfish, but it isn’t. Let me tell you why. Sure, “working out” on the many things I have given you to do has eventually given you rewards like that of a body builder. It has made you strong. And when the strength of your soul returns to you, so does the love. And where does “love” fit into the equation of all that you need to do to “work out your own salvation?”

The answer to that was shown to me in a little dream I had this morning before waking up.

There is a possibility that I may evacuate this planet before general evacuation is called for. And so I saw myself near one of those “dingers” trying to give me a “home run,” those circular flying machines we usually attribute to having been manufactured not on this planet, but somewhere else. I sensed it had come to pick me up and take me away for my work was finished. Yet I still asked: “Why did you come?” And the answer was: “It was love that pulled us down!” When I heard these words I awakened and became very worried about your own evacuation. But then I remembered and thought, no, there will be a general evacuation which will look after all of you who have worked as hard as I did in your own assigned area of responsibility.

And now you know what finally brought them down to you in numbers so large you could barely see the sky any more for all those machines in there to take you home: it was your love which pulled them down, for at that point you were no longer fearful to let them take you to safety.

(Generals, please make these Final Words of Caution worth more than just the ending of a good movie out of Hollywood!)

My Final Words of Caution

To the peoples and nations of this earth do I speak a final word of caution. It is also a warning to you and your children, and to this warning you must give your highest possible unrelenting priority. Day and night your security forces must remain vigilant. I want the people to demand from your governments and councils regular reports back to them on the status and quality of a surveillance on which the continuation of your paradisiacal liberty depends.

Now take this to heart: In the past you were not united with your brother, you were fragmented. You failed to seek your brother's welfare. To you he was competition to be outsmarted, to be taken advantage of, to be exploited as a labour force, to be killed in wars when you were ordered to or when it suited your egocentric interests, to be betrayed if you could get away with it, to steal from and to see him gone rather than have him for a friend. THAT WAS YOUR MISTAKE! YOU WERE NOT ONE WITH YOUR BROTHER; AND LADIES, YOU WERE NOT ONE WITH YOUR SISTER! And in that condition of mental fragmentation of one human being from another you did not realize that you were surrounded by a people who understand the power of oneness and acted accordingly.

You were large in number and they were small, you were fragmented but they were united and acted as one, and so you were conquered and became their slaves. For thousands of years they lived among you, keeping you in disarray, toil, blood and agony. They controlled every aspect of your miserable existences, and you did not know them, neither did you know what they were doing, and you even came to their defense when they claimed rights for themselves which you were denied.

They gave you religion and you fell for it, they gave you governments which you never controlled, they gave you laws to limit your rights and freedoms, above which they exalted themselves, they took your gold and gave you paper, they gave you money to assure your poverty, they fed you lies and you devoured them all.

And here is the secret of their power: THEY ARE ONE AND YOU WERE NOT!! BECOME ONE AS THEY ACTED AS ONE PEOPLE AGAINST YOUR INTERESTS, AND YOU WILL NEVER AGAIN BECOME THEIR SLAVES! I said: Put them under perpetual surveillance. To assist you in that effort I have given you a national SECURITY PANEL of 12 men and 12 women, endowed them with the power of oneness and passed onto their shoulders the awesome responsibility of keeping your paradise safe from predators and conspirators. I have made them in charge of all security forces and the military as tools to carry out their mandate. Oneness have I made to them a mandatory condition before their decrees can be carried out. Never in the known history of man have ever nations and peoples been governed by authority placed under such a tall order for effecting its decisions. This I have done to guarantee the safety of your new-found liberty in perpetuity and instill upon you a feeling of being secure. Support them and be one with them. Be one people from here on out for the foe is still among you who in the past took action in its own separate oneness against all your interests and made a hell out of all your surroundings. Remember though one thing: Their oneness was in secrecy, but yours must be natural and evident to all. Understand that oneness is a state of being and less one of doing.

Do not permit secret combinations to rise up in your midst to rob you of your life essence. Their tools of money and religion were only two of many you so readily fell for. I have given your freedom back to you, and returned to you control over the destiny of your own lives. But I assure you of one thing: what I have done for you this time I will never repeat, for I have my own happiness to pursue, one which I fail to identify in a struggle for liberties which you lose for failing to be one. Your price of freedom is eternal vigilance indeed, but to that vigilance you must now add your new-found oneness with your brothers and sisters all over the world, and then you will become what creation always expected you to be: a free people, worthy of experiencing perpetual joy, and only then will your reclamation remain an ongoing record of success.

- Reni Sentana-Ries, your benefactor from the stars.

THE GLOBAL AGENDA

Introduction to the Global Agenda

I am not running a democracy here! This is dictatorship at its finest. You will execute my orders or step aside for someone who will, for TO YOU THEY ARE THE LAW! You are now accountable to me and I will be the link to assure your accountability back to the people. I in turn report to the High Council of the Federation of Free Planets which has decreed that this mission must not fail. The effect of our success will go far beyond this planet, and I therefore trust no one except myself with an assignment of this magnitude.

I have said I am your Counselor. That is so, but now I am also your General and Commander in Chief, and in that sense all issues raised here have become a military operation. If you have gained power over the affairs of your nation through the process of elections and implement my orders I want you to remain in your office until you elect to step down at your own volition. If you have been democratically elected and refuse to implement the laws of this agenda, you must step aside for one who will. And in no wise will I permit any one to use religion or tradition as an excuse for failing to implement any of the matters spelled out in this agenda. You will recognize whether issues raised here apply to you and your nation, and you are at liberty to correct ills of similar nature at your own initiative. Surround yourself with a team of likeminded men and women, and your people will love you in return for your collaboration with me. Prepare for my first visit to you by having a SECURITY PANEL ready for me to meet with. The agenda itself will be released in manageable steps when I am out of this jail and can be back on internet.

Introduction to Agenda Item 1

To all military generals of the United States of America and all generals or military commanders from all nations of the world do I speak now: Although I have written items 1 to 3 as distinctly separate packages, they, as best as you can, must be implemented simultaneously. "Why?" you may ask. BECAUSE THE ONES WHO CONTROLLED MONEY AND GOLD OF THE PAST ARE THE SAME WHO ALSO CONTROLLED THE AMOMIC BOMBS OF THE PRESENT, AND THE MOMENT YOU ATTEMPT TO WRESTLE THE POWER OF MONEY AND GOLD AWAY FROM THEM IS THE TIME THEY WOULD WISH TO TAKE THE WORLD DOWN WITH THEM. DON'T LET THEM! BE UNITED!!

On their tombstones I want you to place the following mandatory inscription: "Only the stars in their wisdom gain prudence to rule over us, for we are the epitome of their glory." I also want you to secure all H-bombs they placed in tectonic fault lines.

Agenda Item 1: The Lion of Judah is also the Commander in Chief

My first item goes to all military generals of the United States and for the time being also of Russia. I herewith put the Army, Navy and Air Force and all their personnel on notice that today (October 8, 2006) I am assuming control over your forces as your Commander in Chief. This office therefore no longer belongs to the current President of the United States nor to that of the presidency of Mr. Putin of Russia. The transition of power is official and immediate, and will become visible to the world when you generals follow my orders after your introduction into the contents of this site, and after you interpreted the signature to my authority correctly: "Conspiracy Corrupt Unfolded" is completed, and now I want you to "Listen to Me, General!", I am your Chief Commander! And I want you to bring the boys home out of Afghanistan and Iraq, and if the power brokers of Rumsfeld and Co. don't like it, arrest them when you get home. And tell them from me: "The nonsense is over!" Tell your troop to stop the persecution of Osama bin Laden, and when he comes out of hiding, for heaven's sake, keep him safe! Also bring Saddam with you when you leave Iraq to make sure he is safe. Seila and I wish to meet with both of them. Saddam we will take back to Iraq ourselves. This is not a coup, for you still have under my command. It is a mere shift of power from the incompetent and irresponsible to the competent and responsible. Your compliance I will report back to the High Council of the Federation of Free Planets, and they will honour you for it. Your next assignment will be at home, which will not cost the blood of your men! Agenda items beyond 24 I will release when I get out of this prison they keep me in.

One more thing: Do you remember Marvin with his big motorcycle from 1995 in Arizona? He loved the soup I made him and could not get himself to do the deed. Good man that he is! He still had a heart! Say hello to him from us the next time you see him. We should have followed his advice to get out of there sooner. Oh, and don't forget to surround the Pentagon building with your forces just in case there are folks in there trying to give you trouble. Wherever you generals go when back in the United States, be seen surrounded by loyal armed troop, and make it a priority to knock at the office doors to all chiefs of police and security forces throughout the country. If anyone of them think that what you do is unconstitutional and indictable, and that you should be arrested for what you are doing, then relieve them from their posts and find someone among them who is still levelheaded. Just don't put up with nonsense any more.

I also want them to tell you what they have done with our personal belongings which Seila, our son Sean and I in 1996 were forced to leave behind in Tempe, when we had to flee the country back into Canada penniless. Jim Lawless knows all about that.

While you are talking to the agents there, please let them tell you as well to whom the treasure of gold coins belongs that was carted away from the Bank of Nova Scotia out from underneath the rubble of one of the towers in New York in 2001. That's all for now. Be dismissed.

Agenda Item 2: All Gold Must Turn to Dust!

Well done, Generals! This next assignment is for you as well. It must be executed in synchrony with all military generals of NATO, Australia, Israel and Russia. Tell Israeli IDF Commanders, that if they consider non-compliance with this operation, you will direct your guns at them. I have given the Jewish people a guarantee of safety, however, as with anything, that guarantee is conditional upon their cooperation with the new order we are now setting up for the people of this world.

Of all affected nations it is mandatory that a possible objection by their political leaders be overruled, and tell the Generals to remove any leader or president who will not cooperate. That is my order. Also have the Generals identify whether the leaders' cooperation is sincere or faked and agreed to grudgingly. Those leaders I want also removed out of power and replaced by ones suited for the job we are doing. Russia is bit of a special case in that I hope to retain President Putin as an ally. I need him for some future work there. Should he however object to what I want his military generals in Russia to do next, who are now under my command as well, then they must remove him from power at my order. And tell them this order to compliance comes from the former Czar of Russia who was assassinated after the 1917 Bolshevik revolution. They should be able to make a connection there.

Now, this is what I want done in as much synchrony as is physically possible throughout the United States, NATO countries, Australia, Israel, known offshore banking centers and Russia: In all affected nation states I want all known and unknown gold storage warehouses, like Ft. Knox, etc. identified and surrounded by tanks, armoured vehicles, and troop. I want all shipments of gold among storage centers halted, and all gold reserves secured, with release of gold only where required by the computer industry or other industrial applications. Shipments of gold to the industry out of these warehouses I want tightly controlled in that quantities ordered must be a true reflection of industrial consumption and consumer needs. The gold itself will be free of charge except for shipping costs, I however expect to see industry pass the benefit of cost savings on to their consumers. This global military siege around gold will last until I say otherwise. Central and South American countries, African countries, South East Asian countries, etc., are all obligated to participate in synchrony with this operation should they be able to identify gold storage facilities of similar kind in their own countries. Do not allow either leader or banker to starve the military of its cash in consequence of this action. Take charge of this matter also. That is all. Be dismissed for now.

Agenda Item 3: The Military Siege on the Money System Begins

The next operation, Generals, is similar to agenda item two. Here again you must effect the cooperation of all other military generals throughout the same nations as before.

I want all central banks everywhere surrounded by military hardware like tanks, armoured vehicles, troop, etc. They must include those of the IMF, World Bank, Federal Reserve, IRS headquarters, Revenue Canada head quarters and branches, mortgage companies, finance companies, credit card companies, and whatever else collects taxes and issues credit translating into debt for the people. Their smaller branches, of which there are very many, only require a small contingent of armed troop each. Initially this siege on the financial establishment will not result in interference to access by the public. Permit business as usual unless I say otherwise. However monitor the transactions of large sums of money aimed at undermining your own interests as a well funded force. Assure your own financial needs for the military as a first priority before any other consideration. Your financial platform must remain secure at all times. Arrest officials immediately who are found in efforts to starve the military of cash.

In conjunction with this action I want all known national and international bankers arrested, including all bank presidents world wide, and placed in custody where they will be held and treated like any other inmate. They shall however not be charged and tried for their crime of operating a global conspiracy by reason of the fact that all governments legitimized and condoned this activity, which I call high treason against the people. They shall however be stripped of all properties they have stolen with their money trick, including all gold they claim, removed from all mansions they live in with their families, and shall be put under replicated shelters to what Seila and I were forced to live in while in Two Hills, Alberta. They and their posterity may never hold positions of public trust, and the surveillance on them shall be permanent, except in the privacy of their own hovels. They will be allowed to upgrade the shelters by themselves, but not expand on the size of either of the two buildings. Wood stoves is all they may have for heat. Their mobility shall be restricted to the equivalent of one tank of gasoline per week, and they shall be under a permanent travel ban identical to the effect their money had on ourselves. I also want them locked into a work program for 8 hrs/day except for weekends. This arrangement shall apply to not only national and international bankers, but to all elite which I will identify. The insiders of the Bilderbergs I want arrested and the Elders of Zion hunted as Osama is.

The arrival of military forces around these financial institutions will signal to all governments world wide that from that date on there shall be no more payments made on national, state, provincial, municipal, city, town, school and hospital debts. I want all public debt falling under these categories erased and corresponding savings passed on to the people in tax reductions or improvements on services to the people. I will give the people 30 days or less to observe the effects from these cancellations. Then I will announce new ones and permit them observation for perhaps another 30 days. During these 60 days I want an intense information campaign begun, making the people understand that the objective of these measures is to phase out the use of all currency, and that thereafter their contribution in maintaining an orderly flow of goods and services is mandatory in return for having free access to basic essentials of life in housing, clothing, food, transportation, consumer goods, etc., as all cash tills and ATM's will be removed and all banks closed permanently. Tell the people that discipline will make it work for the good of all. I want the people to understand that access to consumer goods is both, a right, but also a privilege. A right in the sense that access cannot be denied without valid reasons, and a privilege in the sense that it cannot be demanded where supplies are limited or the distribution is unfair to others. People must continue to work, the trains must keep rolling, power plants must not be shut down, factories must keep producing, farmers continue to plant and seeds, houses must be built as needed, cars must be repaired by mechanics, and the refineries must continue to make fuel for cars, trucks, locomotives and airplanes. And all of the above requires people to display reliability in performing all these tasks as though they were paid. I want them to learn from bees and ants. Where guidance is required, government officials will provide it and assure an orderly function of the liberated economic apparatus. I thank you for your attention, Generals. You are now dismissed.

Agenda Item 4: Debt Cancellations Begun

Roughly 30 days have passed, and you will have found the impact on your pocket books not to be overwhelming in that short space of time.

Hello, Generals, I am back to solicit your welcomed cooperation on the next pleasurable assignment which will result in a more dramatic impact on the spending power of the people. Your mission in this is to act as enforcers in demanding the cooperation of all banks and lending institutions. Non-compliance is not an option:

I demand from all banks and lending institutions, i.e. national banks, private banks, international banks, mortgage companies, finance companies, credit card companies, and tax collection enters, including any money institution I may have missed here, to inform in writing the entire spectrum of their clientele of debtors, that all outstanding portions of their debts have been cancelled back to zero. This covers the full range of balances on corporate loans, business loans, personal loans, farm debts, credit card balances, mortgages, outstanding tax balances, and fines. I herewith also put the people on notice that by my authority they are no longer obligated to make monthly payments on these debts. I will closely observe the effect this measure has on the economy, draw my conclusions from that observation, and will decide the timing for the next step. I want the banking institutions however to confirm to you Generals that all their customers have been notified by mail of all debt cancellations. That is all, my friend. Be dismissed.

Agenda Item 5: Paradise Restored!

Hello, everyone! You will have noticed an enormous increase in purchasing power combined with a dramatic reduction in cost to goods and services. Yet I hope it will not have escaped your attention that all this apparent prosperity and wealth has still not reached the destitute and homeless. There still are pockets of poverty and despair in the midst of all this abundance. If the beneficiaries of debt relief are found only among those who have property BECAUSE they played the system “smartly” and in the end came out ahead when I wrote off their debts, then how has it blessed the homeless, the destitute and poor? Not at all, unless they are granted access to more soup kitchens or better cots to sleep on under the night sky. Ridiculous! This situation is an insult to the intelligence of man! When costs approach zero and purchasing power becomes infinite, we have imbalance, and not inflation, where those endowed with money lay exclusive claim on production, leaving out others that have no money still without access to the comforts of life! In other words: the appearance of prosperity has still not resolved the reality of poverty!

Now, Generals, this situation I want ended at midnight February 28, 2007. From March 2007 on there shall be no more money in circulation world-wide!! I want all businesses to remove their cash tills, ATM machines, I want the banks closed, insurance companies disbanded, tax collection centers shut down and recycle bins provided for the people to drop their cash off at. From then on we will build shelters for the poor that gives them dignified living, and they won't have to worry about utility bills, rent bills, and property tax invoices rolling in. They can then finally go to the supermarket and come home with healthy food to eat they never could afford before. And therein the man living in a mansion is not better off than his brother who the night before slept on a wooden bench exposed to elements of sleet and snow.

Money and gold have been the curse to all nations for thousands of years, and once that system of economy became entrenched, the people were ensnared and unable to free themselves from its evils. They simply did not know how, for others who profited from its presence would never agree to its abolition. This time, people, you regained paradise without the shedding of blood. But be prepared to shed the blood of anyone who ever would dare rob you of it again.

What I have done for you this time I will never do again. I did not enjoy it. I lost the sympathy of friends and family members over this issue. The pathway to this accomplishment was full of rocks with sharp edges cutting my feet along the way. But spurred on by the need to make up for my failure to seek the welfare of the Russian people as the mightiest man of the Empire, I resolved to never let the people down again.

We are not finished yet, however. More work lies ahead. That's all, General. Go now, you are dismissed, and have fun with the boys target shooting on ATM machines.

Agenda Item 6: Rights and Limitations of Ownership vis-à-vis Property Under Public Trust

With the disappearance of money an adjustment must be made to the traditional perception of ownership rights. For instance Mr. Bill Gates owns and operates Microsoft. He is also the General Manager of the company. It gives him the right to arrange the labour force within as he sees fit and the right to exchange old, outdated and worn production machinery and replace it with new, more reliable and faster machines. When the time comes that he wishes to retire, he divests himself of the company and seeks an activity in life which would give him greater satisfaction and more pleasure than running Microsoft. Now, the word "divest" has several meanings: to "sell off" does no longer apply, for there is no money for him to receive in exchange. The meanings we are looking for is to "deprive", "dispossess", "free", or "rid." "Dispossess" or "free" would be most fitting in Mr. Gates' case. And here he would have two choices: he can either locate a competent man or woman from within or outside of his organization, or place his company on a government-run bulletin board, where officials would then look for a suitable person in his stead. The right Mr. Gates does not have is to send all employees home and tell the fire department to burn his buildings down with all the equipment in it. When he decided to "divest", his company became property of public trust. There lies the limitation of his ownership right.

By the same token let's assume Mr. Gates lives in a mansion. His ownership right is to live there for as long as it pleases him. Should he ever come to conclude the place is too big for him to look after and keep clean and tidy, again, he has two options. He can either find someone himself whom he trusts to enjoy and look after it, or let an official from the government do it for him by listing his property on a public bulletin board as – not “for sale”, but being “vacant” or “available”. The officials then in turn would in a responsible manner look for a new “owner” with ability to enjoy his mansion by keeping it neat and tidy and always in a good state of repair. If Mr. Gates then cannot locate a bungalow suitable for him by himself among those advertised by other owners as “available”, then he should search through the listings kept up to date by officials from government and perhaps find a residence suitable to his liking in size and location, either “new” or “previously owned.” Either way, both, his company and home temporarily became “properties under public trust.”

I have a preferred auto mechanic by the name of “Mike.” I saw him struggle building up his own automobile repair shop, and he succeeded because he is good at what he does and rips no customers off. If Mike prefers to run and operate the auto repair bays at Canadian Tire instead, because that position is advertised on a bulletin board as being “available” and more attractive to him, then he owes it to his clients to find a replacement for his small shop or put it up on a board as being “available.” Since the impact of a possible closure of his “business” on the general public is not severe, unlike that of Mr. Gates’ “business,” Mike could also close his shop, and give his hoists and equipment away to someone else who has a purpose for it. And in that manner life goes on under more relaxed and enjoyable conditions than having to worry about invoices, paperwork, debts, accounting, utility bills, tax collectors, lawyer fees and profit considerations. A first step of entry into paradise has been taken, giving all a mere taste of much more glorious things to come.

Mr. Bill Gates as well as Oprah Winfrey are billionaires with class, two that I respect. They have been tested and found worthy of being with a full right to the enjoyment of their wealth. So I wish to honour them both with a quotation out of Sirach, written in Hebrew by a man whose name was Joshua. Keep in mind that as you read what Joshua 2200 years ago wrote about money, Mr. Gates and Oprah Winfrey passed the test!

(Quote) “Worrying about money will make you lose weight and lose sleep. Worrying about business will keep you from sleeping just as surely as a serious illness does. Rich people work hard to make a lot of money; then they sit back and live in luxury. Poor people work hard and have nothing to show for it, and when they rest, they are still poor. No one who loves money can be judged innocent; his efforts to get rich have led him into sin. Many have been ruined because of money, brought face to face with disaster. Money is a trap for those who are fascinated by it, a trap that every fool falls into.

“A person who gets rich without sinfully chasing after money is fortunate. Do you know anyone like that? If so, we will congratulate him for performing a miracle that no one else has ever been able to do. If anyone has ever passed this test, he can be well proud. Has anyone ever known that he could get away cheating someone, and not take advantage of it? If so, he deserves his wealth and everyone will praise him for his generosity.” (End quote).

Mr. Gates and Lady Oprah, we congratulate you both. You are two that have passed the test!

Agenda Item 7: A New Emblem for the Militaries

Hello, Generals, it is I again, Reni, your friend and Commander in Chief. When we shall meet in person for the first time I will give you a beautiful emblem which I want you to display on every piece of moving hardware belonging to the Army, Navy, and Air Force. I am not interested in dismantling your forces, and you shall from here on out never be known to fire a single shot in unwarranted aggression, and the emblem you proudly carry with you around the globe, bearing my name, shall inspire confidence to all people who see it, that you are there as invincible guardians of their new-found happy lives under the economic order of paradise. Your forces will have the honour to bear it first, for you heeded my call to accept me for your Commander in Chief, however down the road of perhaps only a short time hence, other military forces around the world may wish to adopt it as well and signal to you their union with you as guardians of the people's happy lives.

Your mandate to shed blood, though, has not ended, and never will, seeing that you at times may be required to use deadly force in the defense of the true and newly established liberty of the people. There will be zero tolerance from here on out for anyone plotting and scheming in secrecy to effect a fall from paradise into yet another era of tyranny through money and gold. This is where your guns come into the picture to settle all such matters of what from here on out will be called "high treason." Paradise can only be shielded by strength and superiority combined. You may never have to fire a single shot again until time comes for evacuation into better ships than you travel on now. But your presence is needed to keep the foe at bay who is still lurking around in many nations' back yards, including that of your own.

Thank you for your attention. And oh, for heaven's sake, rechristen some of your ships that are still named after political war mongers from the past. Also see if you can find some nicer names than calling some of your flying contraptions "Predator" or "Dominator." Perhaps you can in the future take the aggressive ring out of names you assign to your equipment. Have a good day. You are now dismissed.

Agenda Item 8: Will Uthrania Become the Heiress to the British Throne?

Good Morning, Generals. I almost forgot to ask of you this one small thing: Please contact Queen Elizabeth of the Royal House of Windsor, Queen of the British Commonwealth, and ask her whether she has any objections to the idea of my wife Seila becoming the heiress to the Throne she now occupies, should Uthrania Seila Sentana-Ries not object. She does not know yet that I asked. A few years ago Seila said "No!" to the idea when it came up and suggested "Let Saddam have it!" Now, Saddam definitely may not want it, I think. Tell the Queen from me, that her Throne will become empowered again, for I want the figurehead nonsense over there gone. But should the Queen not like my idea then she must be prepared, endowed with real power this time, to continue on her throne, to rule the British Empire by herself with an heir or heiress of her own choosing in the waiting subject to only very few restrictions imposed on her by myself. That is all, Generals. You are dismissed for now.

Agenda Item 9: Honour Restoration on Saddam and Osama

Hello, Generals. On a lighter note I need to tell you what happened a few years ago. Saddam paid us a visit for several reasons, and on that occasion was also trying to teach me to walk like a king. So before heading over to a restaurant he showed me how to do it right, and my, was he good at it, walking in his familiar majestic style! Yet no matter how hard I tried, he was never pleased with my gait. So, finally after several vain attempts he gave up saying: "You are not a king. You are a leader!" And from then on the issue never came up again. When you are back on your way home from Iraq and he tells you he can't remember having been in Canada in 1998, don't worry, among the starships elite important issues get done regardless of constraints by space and time.

Osama on the other hand has a hard time trusting you any more. The only way you can get him to come out of hiding, I think, is for your men to go into the mountains of Afghanistan with a placard in one hand and a megaphone in the other, yelling into the echoing mountain valleys: "Osama, Czar of the Russian Empire! We mean you no harm! You can come out now! Reni wants to speak with you.....speak with you.....speak with you!"

Generals, put yourselves into his shoes! The broken trust from earlier days of collaboration, and then have that most powerful military force of the world turn against him, relentlessly hunting him for years like the playboys of Britain hunt the fox! Who can blame him should he continue to play hard-to-get. This time around you will have to give him solid proof of your sincerity. I think he will only come out when at the appointed time and location he sees me flanked by yourselves. So put your pictures on the net so he knows what you Generals look like. He would also want to see some Russian Generals there with us, all standing and waiting side by side. Al Jazeera would be a good go-between for making the necessary arrangements. I will assure him from statements on my own website that it will indeed be me in person waiting there with you and not a look-alike out of Hollywood. We'll have the media waiting there with us. I will take the honour to greet him first. That is all, Generals. You can go now.

Agenda Item 10: To the Leaders of the Government of China

You will have noticed that no directive I have issued here I ever made compulsory to you and your people, and neither will I in the future. My mandate does not include China. Our own information on you indicates that your people will have their own guide. Whether at this time you have been able to identify who it is, I do not know. However when that individual comes forward, be kind to him or her, and place no barrier between that person and the people. He or she will be no threat to your power of rule over the people of China, but bear in mind that you and your people must be prepared for the upcoming global evacuation just as much as we ourselves must be. In my own writings on this website I have called the process of our people's preparation a "reclamation." Since the timing for the end of this world is the same for all of us, I strongly advise you to participate in scrapping your money system as well. You and your people cannot survive as an island left behind where money is still in use as a basis for the exchange of goods and services you call "trade." My concern here is two-fold: a) you can no longer be paid for anything you export, and b) the survival of your people makes an uninterrupted flow of imports necessary for which you no longer can pay us, since our money has become obsolete. However in the absence of money at your end also, your economic needs for the future in terms of imported raw materials, etc. will remain met by merely listing them in the form of a "trade" or "demand" order similar to that of a purchase order. And conversely our claim on products manufactured by your people will likewise be stated in the form of a trade order. Your continued use of currency at home would severely conflict with the simplicity of all trade arrangements that are now possible among nations. You should have no difficulty to match the expiry date of currency in your country with that of our own. Have a good day, gentlemen.

Agenda Item 11: Judgment Day has finally arrived! (Part One)

2,400 years ago I wrote into my own scroll the following words: (quote)

“...the message will be about the end of the world and the foundations (governments) of the world will understand that the voice is speaking about them. They will tremble and quake because they know that they will undergo a change when the end comes... The time is near when I will come to judge the people living on earth. I will punish those who have hurt others with their injustice... This age, which is about to pass away, will have the final seal put on it. Then I will give the following sign: the books will be opened across the sky for all to see (our books on internet). The hearts and minds of people on earth will be changed. Evil will be destroyed and deceit eliminated. Faith will grow strong, corruption will be overcome, and truth, which has not produced fruit for so long, will make itself felt again.” (End quote).

At the time Ezra was warned to “not be so quick to raise useless questions in the present age; then you will not be so quick to do so in the final age.” This was spoken with reference to the question-and-answer book called “The Mancharians’ Newest Civilization.”

And when, according to ancient prophecy, would “Judgment” come? Ezra wrote: (quote) “When you see that some of the signs I have told you about have appeared, you will know that the time has come when God Most High will bring judgment on the world he has created. There will be earthquakes, national rebellions (revolutions, insurrections), international intrigues (global conspiracies), unstable leaders (democracies, elections), and confused rulers (leaders who cannot understand why events unfold the way they do). When you (Ezra) see these things happening, you will know that they are what God Most High has spoken about since the beginning of creation.” (End quote).

With reference to events radiating out of America into the world Ezra wrote: (quote) “You saw the angry lion (the holder of the High Office of the Lion of the Tribe of Judah) come roaring out of the forest (shed his disguise) and you heard it speak to the eagle (the United States of America) and rebuke it for the evil it had done (see the article “Curse on America”) and for all that it had said (lies, deception, betrayals). The lion represents the Messiah whom God Most High has held back until the end. He will be a descendant of David (from the House of Judah) and will come to speak to the rulers. He will rebuke them for their wickedness, their sinfulness, and their contempt for God's ways. While they are still living he will bring them to judgment, condemn them for their sin and destroy them (strip them of their power). But he will have mercy on the rest of my people, those who are left in my land; he will set them free and make them happy (restore back to them their long lost paradise) until the end comes (evacuation day). (End quote).

"Judgment Day is final and sets the final seal on truth for all to see." (See Agenda Item 7).

It may as well be so that my own scroll of ancient times never made it into the canon of today's Bible books. There was too much truth in it for even religionists of the past to stomach. IT SPARED MY OWN SCROLL FROM HITTING THE CHOPPER BLADES OF THE SHREDDER INTO WHICH ALL THE OTHER CANONIZED BOOKS OF THE BIBLE ARE COMMISSIONED!

Judgment Day is here, and the only Judgment ruling this Day will be that of my own! No religious book on earth will tell me how to conduct it, not even my own scroll of the past! Yet many trembling under the thunder of my words will be surprised to learn that Judgment Day is less about punishment for wrongs of the past than it is on forgiveness for those wrongs. To many this Day will see their "sins" of the past forgiven without the need for anyone shedding blood as a "sacrifice" for those "sins". Indeed, I want you people to begin purging this label out of your minds. From now on be aware however of negative life expressions stunting your personal growth, for you ought to prepare yourselves for entering worlds where the word "sin" is not even part of their vocabularies. The value judgment on any deed of your past or any of your future will from here on out not be made necessarily by people around you, neither by society nor traditions, but as you connect back to the inner godhood of yourselves, you then see and judge for yourselves whether proceeding with an intent will be either beneficial or detrimental to your growth or personal progression, and therein you find yourself guided by an accurate understanding between right and wrong, which your own inner godhood is capable of giving you. Also develop the capacity to forgive yourselves for errors of your past, and begin connecting to your inner higher selves!

But I warn some of you, there will be “sins” that belong outside of the category of instant forgiveness, and they will be judged by the universal measuring stick of acceptable and permissible conduct. Also begin to grasp and understand the necessity of upholding the guidelines of universal ethics. When I say “universal”, that is exactly what I mean: A STANDARD OF ETHICS ACCEPTED BY THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE OF LIGHTED BEINGS! Your personal acceptance of that standard will open the doorways for you to become re-admitted into higher worlds existing beyond this earth. Any conduct performed with the intent of victimizing or inflicting injury on others is taboo by the universal standard of ethics and will be judged accordingly, where then society is taking over to protect itself.

When the Generals get my word and follow my lead, they merely fulfill what was accurately foretold in my own ancient writing not found in your official Bible book where it is written (quote): “But Judgment Day will be the end of the present age and the beginning of the future age. Then all corruption will end, self-indulgence and disloyalty will be eliminated. Righteousness and truth will reach their full maturity. So on Judgment Day no one will be able to have mercy on those who have been condemned, and no one will be able to harm those who have been acquitted.” (End quote).

I could not have spoken it any better today.

Agenda Item 12: Judgment Day has finally arrived! (Part Two)

I continue to speak to the people of this planet: Then you may ask: “But what about all those generations of the past which have come and gone, finding themselves deprived of the opportunity to hear the things you are teaching us now? Will they now all be left behind?”

My reply to you is: no, those generations of the past are you! You all have come back from the dead to be here again, being given the opportunity to hear our words and progress in preparation for the evacuation from this planet onto other planets in order to escape all natural catastrophes otherwise inflicted upon you by mother earth as she cleanses herself from all the dross and corruption your past has left on her delicate skin – an event we all understand to be ‘the end of this world.’

Evacuation is standard procedure among civilizations throughout the universe, but be mindful of the fact that it is also conditional. Those dying now will quickly come back to hear it in their youth, and no one will be left behind.

Agenda Item 13: To the Deputies of the Attorney General of Alberta

My next item is a cold shower for the Deputy Attorney General’s department of Alberta, led by the “Agent of the Attorney General” Mr. Stephen Bilodeau, the agent who prosecuted me during all hearings of my kangaroo trial in Edmonton:

This is my second official warning to release our computer equipment back to us with all hard drives untouched, if they do not wish to see Edmonton Downtown go down into a pit before even the high rise towers have a chance to crumble.

They dismissed our first warning as a joke in bad taste. The aspect which makes this issue so serious is the fact that those drives contain personal readings from the Akashic Records to which no human being is allowed access without our permission. Our computers in their possession are worse than atomic bombs in their suitcases.

Agenda Item 14: Horst Gotowik

Generals, I want Horst Gotowik from 86th Street in Edmonton put into a nice house. I owe him a personal debt from the eighties which I never was able to fully repay, When finally we thought here was a chance to square off with him financially, government agents blocked the publication of our first two books from a publisher in Victoria, BC. I want these agents identified, including those who gave the orders, arrested and put in custody under your care. There they shall wait until I decide their fate. If I give them justice they are dead, and if I grant them mercy, then how can I be just? I hate this.

Agenda Item 15: Canada's Court System Under Investigation

Hello, Generals! At this time I must apologize for dumping so much on you to do all at once, but divide the work into smaller, manageable packages and make someone in charge of each little project like any good manager would do.

I want you to launch an investigation into Canada's Court System and find out for me, please, why I could not get justice on this side of the border as demanded even by primitive standards of Old Testament Law (Exodus 23,6). The problem I have here is nation-wide, I believe.

First, place instant security around the former Foreign Affairs Minister of Canada, Mr. Pierre Pettigrew and his family before they have a chance to kill him. His testimony is essential to the investigation.

You will be investigating the racial bias in the system, create statistics, explain why the presumption of innocence was forsaken in law, why judges have the power to move goal posts set by the law, why charges are laid against citizens on insufficient authority, why politicians cannot be subpoenaed to testify when requested, why justice is unavailable without a lawyer, why my official name change notification was ignored by the court, why charges can be laid in cases as petty as mine, where no member of the public has complained, why the police force accepts private donations to finance its so-called hate crimes division, why legal arguments count for nothing unless they come from a lawyer, why documents of self-incrimination are not allowed, why a jury is not allowed to see photographic evidence supplied by the defendant, why the prosecution and the judges are seemingly one team, why Canada can no longer provide its people with a fair and impartial tribunal as promised in the constitution, why transcripts can be falsified or altered without consequences, why full disclosure of evidence is prevented by prosecution and judges alike as both parties disrupt cross-examinations, and finally, why people can make victim impact statements that are no victims. When you have the answer to all these questions, I want the results published and will then make adjustments to the system as required. Thank you, Generals. You are now dismissed.

Agenda Item 16: Taxation Outrage

Generals I had another collision with Canada's justice system dating back to the late eighties over the illegality of federal direct taxation on income from Canadian Citizens. Canada's old BNA act , which is still valid today, assigns the power of direct taxation as an exclusive right belonging to the provinces, and on the other hand the government in Ottawa was assigned taxation powers by any means it wishes other than those assigned as belonging "exclusively" to the provinces.

I want you to investigate the War Measures Act on taxation from 1917, the reasons why it was not repealed after the war was over, a 1956 Supreme Court of Canada decision concerning direct taxation, giving the Canadian Government 12 years to get out of the direct taxation business, why this Supreme Court ruling was ignored, and why the Alberta challenge to the legality of the GST was lost in Court. I want you to investigate the sincerity of the Alberta lawyers to defeat it, the weakness of their arguments, compare the arguments with those I raised in the Federal Court and the Federal Court of Appeal against the validity of the GST, and tell me why I lost a multi-billion class action law suit on behalf of Alberta tax payers who were forced to pay this tax which I consider illegal. I want statistics of ethnic representation throughout the court system as well as government, and finally I want I want to know why governments at all levels are nearly exclusively run by lawyers, on which I want statistics as well. As before, when your results of this investigation are in, I want them published, draw my conclusions and implement changes to the system as required to prevent abuse of power from here on out. Generals, for the duration of the investigations into Canada's court system and that of the Federal and Provincial governments I want all their legislative buildings surrounded by troop and equipment as required. Thank you again, gentlemen. You are now dismissed.

Agenda Item 17: And the Books Are Being Opened...!

Good morning, Generals. I want the historical record of the past set straight. This is the ugliest assignment I have given you yet, however it needs to be done in order for the most accurate record of mankind's history we can possibly produce to go into the archives of the Akashic Records. The match between the one we will create at the end of this age and the one which all participants have written by the hand of their own lives should match as closely as possible the one which already exists scattered throughout the Akashic Records now. You may compare it to defragmenting a hard drive.

From the general public I want men and women to come forward who wish to participate in this awful task: historians, scientists, anthropologists, laymen, laywomen, researchers, and so on, and who will then create many teams throughout many countries to conduct an array of historical research of the past, past events, the rise and fall of kingdoms, the intrigues and treacheries of their leaders, the wars they conducted, the secret societies they formed, the monarchies they destroyed, the doctrines they invented to deceive the people, the economic and philosophical systems they created to control the masses, the schemes with which they plotted to overthrow righteous civilizations and societies, their names, the hierarchies of their power, the texts of secret covenants they wrote, their religions, and also the good deeds many did throughout mankind's known history.

As resources I want you to be given access to all major libraries of the world, all archives held by governments, museums and religious institutions. I want Pope Benedict to secure the archival records of the Vatican until your teams arrive to work there, and I want you to have access to all records and translations of the Dead Sea Scrolls, classified or not. There also are the Society for Historical Review, the Canadian and Australian League of Rights and their archived books, NASA, the Pentagon, etc.

For example: we need the facts about the Tower of Babel, the "wheel" Ezekiel described, the Sumerian people and their records, their connections to the extraterrestrials, Atlantean technology, why technology became lost for so long, the "pillar" of fire from Moses' days, how the pyramids were built and by whom, and for what purpose, who designed and constructed the monuments on Mars, what was destroyed the surface of Mars, where has Mars' atmosphere gone and by what mechanism was it lost, what are the facts of mankind's origin on earth, why do we have different races, indicating a fallacy in the theory that all of mankind came from Adam and Eve, are the theories of genetic evolution accurate, are the "miracles" of Christ true, how does prophecy come about which speaks of future events, where does it come from, who invented religion and instituted the abomination of animal sacrifice, the truth about Moroni, who lied about the alleged need for innocent human blood as payment for others' "sins", who were the "gods" that demanded to be "worshipped", why are we not told the facts of reincarnation and that of our own godhood potential, why are we being forced now to throw religion into the trash bins of mankind's screwed-up history after millennia of human suffering from lack of understanding, which catastrophes were caused by interplanetary conjunctions, and what planets were involved, where did the asteroid belt come from, is time travel possible, why did the God of Moses condone money and then say: "Look after the poor!", who was Moses' "god", why so many wars, why was the library of Alexandria burned to the ground?

I want the truth about Pearl Harbour, the Russian Revolution, the wars of Europe, the Fall of Rome, the Jewish Holocaust, why does man oppress woman, the Kennedy assassination, the massacres of the Palestinians and the Armenians, depleted uranium and its consequences from use in warfare, why and how did the towers of New York come down, atomic underground tunneling, the reintroduction of torture in modern times, the origin and purpose of freemasonry, the Illuminati, all revolutions, extraterrestrial captives and how they have been treated by the established elite, and anything else you may find important for us to understand why and how events of the past unfolded the way they did.

I hope you have time enough to finish this work before conditions on this planet call for our global evacuation. Before we leave this planet we need the "air we breathe" cleared of all misconceptions. Here the teams must learn to emotionally detach themselves from the information they find and proceed on that basis. When the research is done and the picture of humanity's past is clear, the purpose of this exercise is fulfilled and we can then move on with worlds of bliss we create for ourselves, having thoroughly learned from the mistakes of our past.

To facilitate a free flow of information from the work of these teams back to the people, I want all teams to have full access to the internet, operate their own websites where they will publish condensed reports of their findings, interlink with each other, and for the purpose of reaching all people everywhere with their information we must now aim to provide every household with the opportunity to have connection to the net. Thank you, Generals, for your attention. You are now dismissed.

Agenda Item 18: Where do the Jews fit in at the End of This Age? (Part One)

Hello again, Generals. This is your Commander in Chief, Reni, requesting your attention. The next item I write for the benefit of the Jewish people around the world. I am who I always said I am: their Lion of the Tribe of Judah. I am their Ezra of the past. My scroll of 2,400 years ago will convince them that I am not their enemy. I am like the Moses of their past who led them out of Egypt into a promised land, only that the “promised land” of today, into which I wish to lead them now, is no longer a “land” to which they hold an exclusive right. Their privileged status is gone along with their reputation as “God’s Chosen People.” Their quest for inheriting the promised land of the “New Jerusalem” is no easier nor harder than that for any other human being.

And what really is the “New Jerusalem” here of which is spoken as “having come down from heaven”? It is nothing other than the peace and harmony and brotherhood among nations through the power of universal oneness with all of creation. That is our “New Jerusalem” they must learn to live in, love, and defend. Once the Jewish people have tasted some of its glories for a while shoulder to shoulder with all other cultures, they then will not be left behind when the greater ships from the stars come to get them and us removed off this planet and transported into other worlds before living conditions on this one deteriorate to the point where survival is no longer possible.

Shortly I will have many friends among the Jewish people, however all of them, friends or foes, will become subject to the rigors of a judgment this Day is calling for, and here the people of my past are no exception. Those among them who pass the test of this judgment I will give a name by which they shall be called, which will no longer carry with it the stigmas of a false superiority and greed. They may then call themselves after the name in the title to the Office I hold, namely, Judahites. Thank you, Generals, for your courtesy in attending this session. You are now dismissed.

Agenda Item 19: Where do the Jews fit in at the End of This Age? (Part Two)

(October 30, 2006). Good Morning again, Generals! This next item is a mere continuation of what I spoke to the Jewish people about. I told them I am the Ezra of their past. Whether I also was the Moses who led them out of Egypt I do not know with certainty, however in the late seventies or early eighties I and several colleagues of mine, saw, as we were looking out of the College Plaza office tower on the south side of Edmonton at 8:00 am, the “pillar of fire” hovering in the dawning morning sky at roughly 500 to 700 ft above the houses. It consisted of a metallic cylindrical body, perhaps 30 ft in diameter. The shape was that of an intercontinental ballistic missile hanging weightlessly in the sky. Its position was angled, and from its lower end we saw a bright yellow smokeless flame extending out. It slowly realigned itself to a new position, stopped there, and then shot upward into the sky in one straight path at phenomenal speed and acceleration, until after 30 to 40 seconds we were unable to see the bright flame any more. The next morning I looked for news reports on this incident, which must have been watched by thousands of people on the ground, but there were none. So I thought to myself, here we go again, typical government conducted cover-up by a centrally controlled media.

Why am I telling you this? If some commanders of the Federation of Free Planets as well as some of my associates I listed under “Credits”, including myself, had any hand in selecting descendants of Abraham to give them the Law of Moses, then that must be considered the most embarrassing mistake we have ever made. The consequences of that error were horrendous for mankind as well as the animal world. And now that Judgment Day is here, we include ourselves as having fallen under Judgment whereby the Jewish people will be tested. It will provide them and ourselves with the opportunity of applying the Law of Forgiveness. The Masters and gods of the past cannot progress without us, and we cannot without them. We are interlinked. I repeat:

It is by universal decree that the gods of the heavens will not be allowed to evolve or progress into higher planes of glory until the errors of their past have properly been dealt with!

And so I will call the Judgment on my own past as on that of my associates from the stars, and together we shall release ourselves from the bondage to a messed-up past we have created together. The nature of the Judgment on ourselves and on that of the Jewish people, which is one Judgment call on both of us, I will not disclose until all the world sees it happening. Only you, Generals, will know in advance what it shall be. That is all, my friends, you are now dismissed.

Agenda Item 20: The Document of Infamy Goes Up in Flames as it Should!

Generals, please investigate the authenticity of the “Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion” which I was denied as evidence to my defense during the trial resulting in a conviction. Compare its content with what has been going on in the world for as far back as history can provide you a match. Compare it with my own statements critical of Jewish participation in a global conspiracy, and give me our unbiased conclusion which of the two literary productions emanates hate: the master plan for a global conspiracy or a prophet’s chastisement of a people involved in it. Then we will publish the result of that investigation, and should any further revisions be necessary to the way we have already restructured government, then they will be implemented as well. The world we create for ourselves at this time will simply not tolerate conspiracies.

I also want you to search for this “identifiable group” of “Elders” with the same intensity as Washington ordered you to hunt for Osama bin Laden. If they have since moved to hide inside the Bilderberg society, check that out as well. Also find out who the people are that on occasion may have asked you to give them conference space in your atomic powered submarines. When you find them arrest them, and place them in custody under military care. There they must wait until we are satisfied we have located them all. Only then shall their deeds come under scrutiny, and we, you Generals and I, shall decide together what is fair to them as Judgment call on these people's negative contribution to society in general. It is not customary of me to share with the world my dreams, but now I will make an exception.

King Nebuchadnezzar had a dream he once shared, and its prophetic nature withstood the test of time. I am no less than he, and therefore I will share with you a dream I was given this morning. The simplicity of it will not make it necessary to give an interpretation of its meaning. Here it is:

I saw myself in a barn that had its wall insulated with thick layers of vertically placed straw inside. All straw was exposed and evenly wrapped around the barn's wall reinforcements. One section of the wall had nearly all its straw torn off but had not been punched through to the outside yet. Along the remainder of the straw-covered wall there was a narrow ledge like a continuous bench at about 3 ft height off the ground. In this barn there was a beast, totally covered in dark fur from head to toe. I felt the beast had to be cleared out of the barn for it was wrecking the barn's insulation of straw, and I also felt it did not belong there in the first place. I observed it rolling along the wall being upright on the ledge, and the straw was flying off as it rolled. What I did not notice was that this two-legged beast was more afraid of me than I was of it. So I decided to get myself a hand saw with a wide blade and a good wooden handle, but the blade was broken down to only half of its original length. I held the saw with my right hand firmly gripped on its handle and began poking the beast into its furry skin. It then came off the ledge and fell to the floor. By that time it had lost all of its strength as it lay there. I poked it again in an effort to make it move at its own strength, still being fearful of it, but to no avail. So I grabbed it, still poking it while I dragged it along the floor towards the barn door at quite an effort of my own. It seemed I even had to drag it up some steps to get it out of the barn door.

But as I looked again, it lay there completely listless on the landing outside the door. Rain began to fall on it, and I saw it had lost all its fur, its skin was white with no muscle features visible, tall and skinny with an unusually long thin neck. Its facial features I could barely discern, but I think the beast was human. At that point, as I looked at the beast, it collapsed to become almost like a two-dimensional image, yet remained alive. A feeling of pity overcame me, seeing it lie there in this pathetic condition, but I did nothing to help it out of its misery. That is all for now, Generals. Be dismissed.

Agenda Item 21: The People's Judgment on the Bible

Hello, Generals, I am back. Can you separate the poison from a soup? Can you separate it from a meal? The soup looks good and so does the meal, but both will kill. That is what happened to the Christian world using the Bible as their guide. From early on the good was mixed with the bad, truth with error, and in the name of "God" and "his church" the most horrendous atrocities were committed on nations and their people, conveniently justified by the Bible, for had "God" not spoken "I will sacrifice nations for you?" Add to this deception the fanaticism of a deluded religious mind, and what we have is bloody crusading justified, along with roasting people at stakes alive.

Tell me, what good came out of the Bible! To all the brutality it preached in the name of "justice" the ultimate lie was added claiming that mankind's "sins" can only be forgiven unless an innocent human being, the so-called "Son of God" had been put to death in a most cruel manner imaginable. I ask you, Generals, what do you expect me to do with the Bible? Its poison has made the nations ill and its perverted doctrines have provided the excuse for endless brutality and wars. Instead of giving enlightenment and understanding of universal reality it gave the people religious superstition marketed as the ultimate truth. The Bible kept the people permanently disconnected from their brothers and sisters of the stars, and got them focused on a "God" they never comprehended, for the concept of "God" the Bible portrays does not exist anywhere in the Universe.

My judgment call on the Bible will be an open contest between the Bible and our own books published by the Federation of Free Planets, spearheaded by the question-and-answer book "The Mancharians' Newest Civilization."

You people of planet earth will pronounce Judgment on the Bible. We will only provide you with clearly marked recycle bins to dispose the Bibles off into, from where they will then be transported into shredders for recycling or disposal into garbage dumps. And that, people, will then become known to the world as your own Day of Judgment on the Bible. So make good use of your time left to become enlightened and gain an understanding of universal realities as only the Mancharians and Masters of the Universe can teach it. The day for the commissioning of Bibles into shredders will be announced later. That is all for now, Generals. Be dismissed.

Agenda Item 22: On Media Slander Against My Person

Hello again, Generals. In the aftermath of my wrongful conviction under a law in Canada which I consider illegal because of its unconstitutional nature, I was slanderously treated by the media, especially the Edmonton Sun. I have in all faithfulness of a true prophet of ancient Israel chastised their children of modern times not any differently than my colleagues did in the olden days, in which they were persecuted and killed. Isaiah hid in the hollow of a tree, which they then sawed in two with him in it. Today their children are of the same disposition. They failed the test when they encountered one of their own prophets of old in disguise of a German from the tribe of Judah, being of the House of David!

Did it make them losers then? Will it make them losers now? Of course! The equinox of today is an opportunity for reclamation no one should miss. "Missing one's boat" (the flying "boat" here) will mean nothing less than a self-inflicted throw-back into eons of low-grade incarnations before another opportunity for a "breath of fresh air" arises at the emergence of another equinox perhaps 950,000 centuries away. Personally I want nothing to do with a prospect as bleak as that for my own future. The Jewish people's choice between righteousness and wickedness today will therefore in essence determine where and under what conditions they will spend their time until the next equinox. Too awful to contemplate if they were to make a wrong choice.

Coming back to the media's slanderous insults against my honour I want you to investigate all media outlets which have reported on my case unfairly and with intent to undermine my credibility with the people. Those who carelessly tarnished my reputation by calling me a "hatemonger" or "Jew hater" I want fired from their positions as reporters, including their bosses who cared not to apologize afterwards. The owners of these media outlets I want stripped of companies in which they permit slanderous statements to be fed to the people for the purpose of promoting hate against the righteous! Thank you, Generals. You are dismissed for now.

Agenda Item 23: Afghanistan Has a Bright Future Under a New Taliban!

Generals, until now I have neglected to speak about your involvement in Afghanistan, other than to say: "Get out of there, and stop hunting for Osama." Please let President Karzai announce to the people of Afghanistan that all foreign troop will leave the country, that the money system for trade will be scrapped, that the Taliban must find for themselves a new name whereby they wish to be called, and that after they have done so they will once again become full participants in the running of governmental affairs in Afghanistan. Also let President Karzai inform the people from me that from now on full equality of man and woman will be restored, including education for all, and that the burka will become relegated to the dustbin of misguided religious concepts. This announcement is no threat to the Taliban of today, but an opportunity for them to shed their traditional image of religious bigotry. That is all, except for one last item. Thank you, Generals, for your cooperation.

Agenda Item 24: The Lion of Judah Seeks an Ally Coming From Israel

And finally, Generals, I want you to find me one person among Government circles in Tel Aviv who is sympathetic to my agenda and has come forward in full support of all I have spoken on this site. And if no one can be found there, then see if you can find someone from the Israeli intelligentsia anywhere in the country who is. Should you find such a person, keep that identity confidential until I can speak with you in person. Exhaust your search among the male population first before opting for a female. I need it done this way to test the responses among Israeli males in leadership or potential leadership positions.

And that completes my various assignments for you in the course of this first edition of the GLOBAL AGENDA.

I had to give you so much to do all at once so you can get familiar with my leadership style and become comfortable with the issues that we need to address and work on together. The second edition of my set of instructions will come after we have met in person.

For your information, today is Saturday, November 11, 2006, 8:23 pm Mountain Standard Time. Thank you, and be dismissed.

CREDITS

Lest anyone think I have done it all on my own, think again! This was teamwork at its best. And so I have decided to give you a list of associates who have assisted me over the years in bringing about this outcome. Bear in mind, please, that the order in which I give their names is no reflection of rank or significance in their roles.

Seila Sentana-Ries, the talented Lady by my side.

“Dharma” from the United States, another gifted lady, who has laboured long hours and hard for many years transcribing from the stars.

Lord Adonai, stern, yet also very kind.

Master Gabriel, the powerful archangel, who shielded us from severe harm when we were in grave danger.

Commander Hatonn, the double agent among the elite.

Allah, in charge of the Arab and other worlds.

Lord Sananda Jmmanuel, the “carpenter of 2000 years ago.

Commander Melix, the brilliant engineer.

The Mancharians as “duty performers” (not messengers).

The delightful Esquarians, cheering us up when the going got rough.

Lord Michael, who assisted by giving us several personal readings from the Akashic Records.

A gentleman from Calgary, whose name I am not allowed to remember.

Ms. Karen Kieser, my caseworker at the prison, who shielded me from menial work assignments and therein made it possible for me to have time sufficient to prepare this work.

Mr. Billy Meyer from Switzerland. He produced the photograph of the dingy, which I then used on my index page without obtaining special permission. I trust he will not be angry with me for doing so. Among all the many photos he produced this one I made to serve a noble purpose.

This list of names is not complete. I caution you however to not worship any of them nor make a religion out of their personages. You may honour them but never worship. From that they will recoil, and you are on your own. All of you must learn to connect to your own godhood or goddesshood from within yourselves and stop seeking after “God”, thinking he (or perhaps she) is outside of yourselves. Therefore, DO NOT DIRECT YOUR WORSHIP TO AN OBJECT, OR PERSON, OR “GOD”, OR “ALLAH”, AWAY FROM YOURSELVES, NEITHER BY ATTITUDE, RITUAL OR PRAYER. You may ask then, and rightfully so: “Do you then pray to yourself?” to which I answer: No, that is not necessary. I respect and honour myself, and will do nothing that would undermine my self-respect. And that is where the “worship” of myself begins and also ends. Do I thank all associates I have listed here? Yes, however their cooperation was as easy to obtain as water flows downhill, for in this endeavor we are and acted as one, with each performing his or her own assigned part in unison for achieving the outcome desired by us all. Therefore, allow the potential of godhood within you to grow, then you will have no longer need to look elsewhere for a “God” or “Goddess” to pull you out of ignorance or difficulties you may find yourselves in. BE ONE WITH ONE ANOTHER!

Mr. Reni SENTANA–RIES, sapphire to the pyramid of man’s evolution.
